TOBIAS MAGEE HOUSE

This family has had a lions share of notables among its offspring. Every profession and artistic field has been benefited by having had in

1907 HOUSE HAS RICH HISTORIC BACKGROUND

The Magee Plantation House at Prentiss Institute is an institution in itself, having housed the pioneer family of Tobias and Nancy (Stevens) Magee who chose the "place" for their sugar cane and cotton farm. They were in Mississippi by 1820, and before 1850, they had already settled where St. Stephens Road forded Whitesand Creek.

The late Dr. Jim Magee claimed that the Magees made syrup for the New Orleans Market, Captain Davis' steamer, Pocahontas, having sailed Pearl River during high water. The Magee sons kept the farm going for Nancy until her death in 1890. She was the mother of thirteen sons and four daughters.

This proud family has many members who are residents of this county and they have contributed greatly to the culture of the region. One great granddaughter of Tobias married the famous Walter Winchell, according to notes dictated by Mrs. Effie (Magee) Berry. Reverend George McDaniel Cole's Magee's chart shows the children of Tobias and Nancy Magee as Rachel Upton, Kitsie Atwood, Nancy J. Coulter, Elizabeth Berry; also Irving, John, Bluen, Jackson C., Whiting, Tobias, Jr., Nehemiah, George W., Thomas Jefferson, William Ira, Hiram, Phillip and Thomas, the latter of whom died young.

It is believed that Tobias Magee followed his uncle, Phillip Magee, to this area, since Tobias appears in the 1820 census of Lawrence County, Mississippi. The elder Phillip was a Revolutionary War soldier who reared a prominent family in western Covington County. It does not take much imagination to visualize reunions of these fine folks when cousins gathered on the bluff of Whitesand.

The old home of Tobias and Nancy had a kitchen wing which was attached to the main house by a walkway. This made it adequate because the older children had already made homes of their own.

If the Prentiss Institute's 1907 house is of 1820 vintage, it is almost certain that Adam and Francis (Parkman) Tyrone were the first occupants, having sold it to Tobias Magee on August 3, 1846, when Mr. Tyrone moved to Catahoula Parish in Louisiana.

A year later Mr. Magee bought the remainder of the Tyrone plantation, according to extant deeds.

The Tyrone children who were reared in the home were William T., Hartwell, Christopher, Henry H., Adam, Jr., Martha T. Cole, France T. Wall and others. William T., Hartwell and Henry H. remained here and reared families.

Prentiss Institute is to be commended for including this landmark in the Federal Register of Historical Sites and Buildings.

In order to complete the work with proper restoration of the edifice, funding is necessary. A matching grant will be forthcoming from the National Register Program.

Tax deductible contributions may be sent to Bank of Prentiss, Prentiss Institute Historical Society Fund, Jonathan Robertson, treasurer. Dr. David Dale is chairman of the Institute Board. Dr. N. R. Burger and Mr. R. C. Paige are directors of the institutional drive. Mrs. Kirby Thompson has agreed to serve as chairman of the preservation drive. Others who are assisting are: Mr. Guy Magee and Miss Geraldine Barnes, the latter of Pascagoula, Mississippi.

Dianne - this is really exciting!!! You have done a lot of work, and YES, found the connection to my Jonathan MAGEE who married Rebecca JAMES, although you don't show that connection on your information. As you will see with a little more added below, in what I have, Jonathan MAGEE is a brother of William MAGEE, b 1762 who married Mary Margaret JAMES!!!! Sending this for now, and please send me your address. I will see what I have in the way of research or proof. I do not have a lot of information on the history you requested.....I have been able to provide you some of William's siblings and father and maybe that will help further your research. With family tree maker I can now print out this line with source notes at the end for each and every single piece of information. I could do this and mail you if you would like. The MAGEE's were heavily tied in with my TOWNSEND line in Washington Parish, and then half of them went on into Texas and I have some articles from the family there on TOWNSEND I can send that mentions Rebecca MAGEE and this line and may have bits and pieces mentioning the MAGEE family a little. Back to Ireland, I have no idea at all. You have more than I. Let's work together on this one, ok? Bettian

Magee

From the mid-1700's Magee land records are found in Sampson County, North Carolina, on Great Coharie River, Little Coharie, Six Runs, and branches of Great Coharie called Cannady Run and Beaver Dam Creek.

On Little Coharie was William Magee who married Ann Moore in 1748. He arrived between 1750 and 1755. A Willis Magee is below William in 1804 as is a Thomas, James, and Phillip Magee.

On Six Runs and Great Coharie are found the Scotts and Coopers, both of whom had daughters to marry Magees such as Nehemiah Scott, Sr., and his wife Elizabeth on Six Runs. They arrive about 1759.

Between Cannady Branch and Shepherd's Branch, both of which drain into Great Coharie, are found Solomon Magee who arrived there about 1762, Solomon Magee, Jr., and his wife Celia (he had sold his holdings by 1801 and moved to Mississippi Territory), and Jacob Magee who had married Mary Scott, daughter of the previously mentioned Nehemiah Scott, Sr.

Still further up Great Coharie on the west side were Elisha Magee (arrived 1768) and later moves to South Carolina and Robert Magee who appears by 1784 and dies between 1808-1816. On the east side across from Elisha Magee is John Magee, Sr., and his wife Sarah. They arrive by 1757 but sell their holdings sometimes after 1787. Below John Sr. is John Magee, Jr., and his wife Anne and they sell out by 1801 and move to the Mississippi Territory. Phillip Magee and his wife, the former Mary Butler, are below John Magee, Jr., and across the river from Robert Magee. Phillip also leaves eventually for the Mississippi Territory.

One John Magee is in the Mississippi Territory area which is to become Marion County and later Pike County (today Walthall). He settles on Magees Creek. Jeremiah and Sire Magee, brothers, settle on Collins Creek at the Magees Creek juncture by 1811. Rev. William Willis Magee, another brother of Jeremiah and Sire Magee, also enters the Mississippi Territory from South Carolina. And, still another brother, Josiah Magee, settles on Dry Creek, opposite of the present-day town of Tylertown.

Jacob Magee, son of William Magee and Elizabeth McCulloch Magee of Duplin County, North Carolina, was born circa 1759 and died in May of 1816 in Marion County, Mississippi. He married in Sampson County, North Carolina, to Mary Scott, daughter of Nehemiah Scott and his wife Elizabeth. Mary died in 1832 in Marion County, Mississippi, and was probably buried beside Jacob in an unmarked grave of the Fleet Magee Cemetery located north of present-day Dexter.

Leaving Sampson County, North Carolina, in 1788, Jacob and Mary lived in Chesterfield District, South Carolina, through 1800 before moving into the Washington District, East of the Pearl, Mississippi Territory and living in the vicinity of Fort Stephens (later this area placed in the newly created Alabama Territory). In 1804 Jacob is found on the Amite River, Mississippi Territory.

By 1813 Jacob settles on Pushpatappa Creek north of present-day Dexter. The place became known as "The Water Hole Place", or, "Waterholes". Refer to the map on Page 20.

Known issue of Jacob Magee and Mary Scott Magee are as follows:

- I. Mary Magee was born ——— and supposedly died in 1836. She is believed to have married a Mr. Johnson.
- II. Bethany Cordella Magee was born circa 1780-1790 in South Carolina and died after 1846. She married Isaac Fortenberry, born circa 1760-1770 and died in 1848. Both are buried on the Irvin Fortenberry place. One of their daughters, Martha Charlotte married Thomas Pigott (1804-1865). See page 38.
- III. Penina Magee was born ——— and died before 1850. She married in South Carolina prior to 1800 to Jephtha Ginn out of Lancaster County, South Carolina, and they are the progenitors of the Ginn family¹ of the Southwest Mississippi area of Pike-Walthall-Marion Counties.

Jephtha registered a land claim at Washington Land Office, District West of the Pearl, Mississippi Territory, on November 18, 1811, in Amite County on the same day as Elisha Magee, Henry Magee, Richard Dilling (sic), Isham Chisum, and John Bond, Jr.²

Known children of Penina Magee Ginn and Jephtha Ginn:

1. Henry Ginn who probably died in his youth.
2. Jane Ginn born prior 1800 and died prior 1840. She married prior to 1820 to Sire Magee, Sr.
3. Terry Ginn born circa 1801, married prior to 1820 to Benjamin Magee (1790-1847), son of William Magee and Mary James Magee of Washington Parish, Louisiana.
4. Clara Ginn born circa 1805 who may be the same individual named Clara who married Thompson Miller of Pike County, Mississippi.
5. Hurliah Ginn born ca 1805 and died circa 1876-1880. He married in 1825 to Salena Ann Smith (1807-1893).

6. Evelline Ginn born circa 1808 and married circa 1828 to William Alford of Pike County, Mississippi.

7. Rasberry Sebastian Ginn born circa 1812 and died prior 1870. He married his first cousin, Missant Magee, daughter of Henry Iverson Magee.

8. Malithia (Alethia) Ginn born circa 1813-living as of 1880 married circa 1829 her first cousin, Chapman Magee (ca 1807-dead by 1860), son of Henry Iverson Magee.

9. Eliza Ginn born circa 1815 and living in 1881 married during the 1850's decade to Solomon Obed Magee (1816-1881).

10. Bethany Ginn born ——— and died 1880. She married 1845 to Valentine Brock (ca 1825-1881).

11. Harriet Margaret Ginn born circa 1820 married circa 1840 her first cousin, Haverson Magee, son of Henry Iverson Magee.

IV. Henry Iverson Magee was born circa 1785 in North Carolina and died after 1860 in Pike County, Mississippi. He married first his first cousin, Annie Carrie Magee, daughter of John Magee and Bethany Scott Magee. Henry Iverson married secondly Catherine Rushing. On December 2, 1817, Henry took 160 acres of land NW¼, Section 11, Township 1N, Range 10E.³ Known children of Henry Iverson include two by his first wife and one by his second wife.

1. Chapman Magee born circa 1807, married his first cousin, Malithia (Alethia) Ginn, daughter of Penina Magee Ginn and Jephtha Ginn.

2. Haverson Magee who married first Harriet Margaret Ginn circa 1840 and married secondly Mary Jane Smith Sartin.

3. Missant Magee born circa 1818 and died after 1880. She married her first cousin, Rasberry Sebastian Ginn, son of Penina Magee Ginn and Jephtha Ginn.

4. Henry Iverson Magee, Jr., (1849-1902) married first Serena McElveen and married secondly Fannie Dillon (1858-1916).

V. Daniel Magee was born November 6, 1785, in North Carolina, and died September 9, 1881, in Grimes County, Texas. He and his brother Nehemiah settled in what was then Montgomery County, Texas. Daniel married Sally Allen. Daniel is listed with a land purchase in the Washington Land Office, District West of the Pearl, on April 9, 1817, for 160.20 acres located in Marion County, the SW¼ of Section 28, Township 2 North, Range 12 East. Children of Daniel Magee:

1. Ervin Allen Magee
2. Felix Winchester Magee
3. Sophronia Leland Magee
4. Nancy Ann Magee
5. Elizabeth Magee
6. Henry Colan Magee

VI. Fleet Magee, Sr., was born circa 1787 in South Carolina, and died August 26, 1847, in Marion County, Mississippi. He married February 15, 1822, in Marion County to Rebecca Pigott, born 1801 and died 185—. Refer to Pages 35-37.

VII. Nehemiah Magee was born December 5, 1770 (1790),⁴ in Sampson County, North Carolina, and died after 1850 in Anderson, Grimes County, Texas. He married December 15, 1815, in Marion County, Mississippi, to Martha Smith ca 1790-1887. In 1842 Nehemiah Magee migrated to Texas. His known children:

1. Jacob Magee (1816-1859)
2. Phillip T. Magee (1818-after 1850)
3. Elizabeth Jane Magee (1821-1889)
4. Anna Jane Magee (1826-1838)
5. Martha Evelline Magee (1828-)
6. Charles Smith Magee (1831-after 1880)

VIII. Ervin Magee was born circa 1791 and reportedly died at the age of 21 from rabies.

IX. Elizabeth Magee was born circa 1797. She married Barnabas Allen and subsequently lived in Copiah County, Mississippi.

X. Sarah Magee (Sally) was born November 11, 1800, and died January 26, 1889. She married John Magee (1792-1877), son of William Magee and Mary James Magee of Washington Parish, Louisiana.

XI. Jane Magee was born ——— and died in Grimes County, Texas. She married Andrew Winborne in Copiah County, Mississippi.

XII. John Magee. Tradition states Jacob Magee had a son John. Although there are some identifiable John Magees, none have been proven to be the son of Jacob. Some Magee historians have said that the John Magee known as Jackey Magee was this son while other Magee historians have argued that John Magee (Jackey) was the son of William Magee and Bethany Scott Magee. If indeed Jacob Magee and wife Mary Scott Magee had a son John, it is still open to documentation.

4. Some researchers of the Magee family have used the 1770 date for the first child born to Jacob Magee and Mary Scott Magee and hence that their marriage was prior to this date. Others, including the late Bickham Christian, eminent genealogist of Shreveport, Louisiana, questioned whether the purported old Bible located in Texas had been correctly read. Mr. Christian fielded some telling examples of 19th century handwriting which could indicate a 1790 birth year, a date that would resolve some knotty genealogical questions.

If any single family of the Pike-Walthall-Marion County areas can be considered as "foundation stock", certainly that family is the Magees. Past research has been both good, monumental, and quite perplexing.

While many people have worked diligently on certain areas or through certain phases, Mrs. Edna Simmons Campbell (Doak S.) of Tallahassee, Florida, and Mrs. Lottie Magee Miller (Alfonso) of Tylertown, Mississippi, have been the two genealogists whose work included the full scope—depth and breadth—of the Magee genealogy and history.

The theory has been for a long time, that our Philip is of this family somehow. I don't know. A lot of research has been done on this family & neither Philip showed up.

One Philip Magee (b ca 1763/65 N. C.), h/o a Mary Butler, said to have been in Marion Co., Ms. ca 1812; was a s/o a John Magee of early N. C. These Magees had Jones Descendants later on (1800's) in Rankin Co., Ms. I suspect this Jones line may tie into the Woody Jones who md Mary Mangum in 1845 - Rankin Co and were in Trinity co., Tx. by 1860. Two of Mary Mangum's sisters md brothers - Nathan & Warren Magee in Rankin Co., & came to Polk-Trinity Co., Tx. ca 1850's.

appointed to visit them, and if deemed expedient, to constitute them into a church" (8) The 1830 minutes of the Pearl River Baptist Association stated that it had "received and read a letter from Half Moon Bluff Baptist Church, showing that it had dissolved, which was considered done, and her name erased from the minutes, but her records may be found in the hands of the New Zion Church." (9) The New Zion Church was located in Marion Co., MS. (9) It is presumed that William Magee was a member of the half Moon Baptist Church, the first Baptist Church in Louisiana, until his death in 1827.

1. JOHN MAGEE 1792-1877

John Magee was born on 1/13.1792 in South Carolina (U. S. Census, Washington Parish, La. 1850). He died on 10/6/1877 at Clifton, La. He was born before his parents moved to Washington Parish, and was raised and lived most of his life near Clifton, La.

John Magee, along with his brothers Hezekiah and Benjamin, served under General Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans in 1815. He was a private in Captain Thomas C. Warner's Company, 13th Louisiana Regiment, War of 1812.

John Magee married in Marion County, Ms. 12/18/1817, to Sarah Magee b. 11/14/1800 S. C. d. 5/26/1889 Clifton, La. Sarah was the daughter of Jacob Magee (Ca. 1760 - 3/27/1816) a Revolutionary War Soldier from Sampson Co. N. C. and Mary Scott. Sarah Magee was the aunt of Terry Ginn, wife of Benjamin Magee. Sarah's sister was penina Magee Ginn.

John Magee served as guardian for his sister Dorcas Magee Andrews' children, after she and her husband passed away (Amite Co. Court records, 1836-1837). When Gabriellen Mary Andrews married Dr. William L. Magee, John took her inheritance and bought for her the Sarah Slocum headright (640 acres), located on the west side of Bogue Chitto River. William L. Magee was one of the first trained physicians in Washington Ph. He was the son of Fleet Magee I, Sarah's brother.

John and Sarah Magee soon became wealthy and influential citizens in Washington Ph. Prior to the Civil War they were one of the largest land holders in the parish, and the largest slave holders in the parish. Much of the land from Mile Branch at Franklinton to Clifton, La. was owned by this family. In spite of the losses during the Civil War, they were able to maintain control of their land. They lived on the James Gwinn Headright, which is now the location of the Clifton, La. Community.

Although John Magee never held public office, he was a strong person politically. He was extremely active in business, community and religious affairs of the area.

John and Sarah Magee gave the land, and assisted in the building of the Magee Methodist Church, at Clifton. After a few years this early Methodist Church disbanded and merged with the Centennary Methodist Church in Franklinton, La. The site of the Magee Methodist Church was later acquired by the Clifton Baptist Church. Clifton Baptist Church celebrated its 80th. anniversary in 1990.

At the time of his death, John and Sarah Magee were among the largest property holders in Washington Parish. Even though the Civil War was an economic blow to the family, they were successful in retaining much of their wealth. Today much of their property is still in the possession of their descendents.

The History of Washington Parish

Washington Parish, named in honor of George Washington, is one of several parishes known as the "Florida Parishes." The Florida Parishes were so named because they originally were part of "West Florida," an area east of the Mississippi River, south of the 31st latitude, and north of New Orleans. The Florida Parishes include East Baton Rouge, the Felicianas, St. Helena, Livingston, Tangipahoa, Washington, and St. Tammany. The area was originally under French rule, but was donated to the British by treaty on February 10, 1763. Sixteen years later, Spain seized possession of West Florida by conquest.

Although the Louisiana Purchase took place in 1803, West Florida was not specifically included in the transfer. The U.S. made a feeble claim to the territory, but Spain was not willing to relinquish control. It was not until the Rebellion of West Florida in 1810, that the U.S. was able to take control of the region. Louisiana became a state in 1812, but West Florida was not made a part of it until several months later.

During the sixteen years of British West Florida's existence, patriots who had fought for the British in the French and Indian War were offered land grants in the area for their military service. Many Anglo-Saxon families moved into the region from Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and the Carolinas. Some of them later fought enthusiastically against the British with General Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans in 1814. General Jackson marched his soldiers through Washington Parish on what was known as the "Military Road."

The parishes of Washington, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, and Livingston were all originally part of St. Helena Parish. In 1810, St. Helena was split to form St. Tammany Parish. Then in 1819, St. Tammany Parish was split to form Washington Parish. The preamble of the legislative act that authorized the split stated that the division was needed because some of the inhabitants lived too far away from the St. Tammany Parish seat to reach it conveniently. In 1832, St. Helena Parish was again divided to form Livingston Parish. The final division came in 1869 when Tangipahoa Parish was carved from portions of Livingston, Washington and St. Tammany Parishes.

Franklinton, located in west central Washington Parish, became the parish seat by legislative act on February 10, 1821. At that time, Franklinton was known as Franklin. The name was changed to avoid conflict with another town of Franklin, located in St. Mary Parish. The town was actually situated five miles south of present-day Franklinton. In 1819, John Bickham, Sr., donated 30 acres of land to be used as a parish seat. Apparently, Mr. Bickham anticipated the forthcoming division of St. Tammany Parish. He stipulated that the 30 acres were to be surveyed into blocks with the center block reserved for the courthouse and jail. The remaining blocks were to be sold to benefit the parish.

The courthouse burned twice, first in 1854, then again in 1897. The fires resulted in a loss of nearly 68 years worth of records. Records from the 1820-1830 decade were kept on file in the state land office and escaped the fire. Some of the records from the second fire were salvaged and others were brought in to be re-recorded. So, only the records from the 1840-1860 period are completely lost.

As of 1992, Bogalusa was the only city in Washington Parish. It was founded in 1906 by the Goodyears of Buffalo, New York. In 1908, the world's largest yellow pine sawmill, which brought Bogalusa into existence, began operations. In just a few months, the city's population surged to 8,000. Today, Gaylord Container Corporation exists on that site.

1811-1812 Tax List For St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana

If an 1810 census of the Florida Parishes ever existed, it has been lost. Therefore, this tax is list important, as it enumerates property owners from Washington, St. Tammany, and the eastern portion of Tangipahoa Parishes. It is derived from the tax list shown in the Memorandum of Tax Money Collected by James Gaines in the Parish of St. Tammany in the years 1811 and 1812.

became a voter and he always voted, and was always a patriot." He was rejected by the board because he couldn't show his papers."

On the same day, an old negro man presented himself. He was born among the jungles of Africa and sold by some loyal Massachusetts slaver into slavery when he was about 20. He formerly was owned by HON. JACOB MAGEE. He still speaks African and his name is ODOR. The registrars were reminded that Odor, like Mr. Lester, was 'furrin born.' The registrar replied that the U. S. naturalization law did not refer to those foreign born of that land (Africa.)

Also, WILLIAM H. ARD and WILLIAM CORKERN presented themselves for registration. "Both were guiltless of the war, both had held the office of assessor, both were, by every rule of fair construction, entitled to register." Yet Mr. Ard was registered while Mr. Corkern was not. The only known explanation was that there was a Radical Club at Mt. Hermon Church, and Mr. Ard had attended one meeting.

ALANSON PARKS, formerly mail contractor in 1861, voted 'secesh; and in 1862, was a Lieutenant in the Rebel Militia. He made himself a sword at "Mas JIM ROBERTS' shop to kill Yankees." He was one of the Registrars.

"PARSON ENGLISH, in 1862, ran for 2nd Lieutenant in CAPT. TURNER's Artillery Company. The same year he canvassed the Parish for Rebel Volunteers, afterward he wanted a chaplaincy at Camp Moore in a Louisiana Regiment. He belongs to Mt. Hermon," and he was registered.

JESSE SAUNDERS, ESQ., before the war was a magistrate. He opposed secession. However, he belonged to a Rebel Cavalry Company. He was registered. He has been accused of being a Radical, but "we do not believe it."

The following have records very similar to Saunders', but were all denied registry:

W. H. JONES	S. E. SLOCUM
J. M. BURRIS	R. BABINGTON
J. E. MORRIS	H. T. BUCKHALTER
J. WADSWORTH	K. McLAIN
DAVID MAGEE	STEPHEN ADAMS

The same reasons that rejected H. RICHARDSON, A. C. BICKHAM, N. S. EDWARDS, C. P. BAILEY, and JOHN J. SLOCUM should have rejected Saunders. The rejection of N. GRAVES ESQ. was a flagrant usurpation of power.

REV. STEPHEN ELLIS, HEZEKIAH MAGEE SR., and DANIEL ? SAUNDERS ESQ. are honored citizens in Washington Parish. They were Union men from principle; each is past 70 years old, but they can't agree with the Radical view. They were rejected.

ALFRED RICHARDSON ESQ. was a magistrate before the war. He was too old for service in the war. He was rejected. The case of DAVID MAGEE ESQ., except for his age, is parallel to that case.

WAR SPLINTERS.

Tomorrow never comes to us,
so we will have to go to Morocco.

When General Lee left Cuba, General Blanco was too busy to see him. But when General Lee returns to Cuba at the head of an army of invasion, Blanco's occupation will be gone, and he will have plenty of time to see him.

News of the storming of Santiago, and the capture or destruction of the Spanish fleet is hourly expected.

April is our national war month.
The revolutionary war began April 1, 1776; the war of 1812, April 12;
Mexican war, April 1, 1846; the civil war, April 12, 1861, and the present war between the United States and Spain, April 21, 1898.

The Suez Canal is neutral, and the Spanish fleet would be allowed to pass through it, on its way to the Philippines; and the Atlantic Ocean is open for it to come this way. If it wasn't for Dewey at Manila, and Sampson and Schley
in Cuban waters, the Spanish reserve fleet might decide to go somewhere.

In some respects war is a great thing. The wealth, power, and glory of the United States is being maintained by the war.

What a Soldier Wants.

Take two pieces of heavy card board 14 by 24 inches square and cover with woolen cloth on one side and black rubber cloth on the other,
whip the edges well and then sew
the two together so to have the rubber cloth out side and make a little book, sew a loop on one side and the button on the other so as to keep the leaves together. Fill the edges with pins and the inside with large needles. A soldier would prefer this to a bouquet of flowers.

The ladies in some cities make very nice ones that hold scissors, darning needles, thread, buttons, pens, a thimble, tweezers, etc. All useful to the soldiers.

Southern Immunes.

Secretary Alger and Adjutant General Corbin feel much encouraged at the rapid progress made in the Southern States in the enlistment of the 10,000 yellow-fever immunes. More applications are being received for enlistment than can be mustered in under the special law providing for these troops. It is the purpose of the government to transfer the army of immunes to Cuba as soon as it is thoroughly organized and equipped.

Both Men Killed.

An old feud between Fred Magee
and Luke Dillon, of Washington Parish, was ended last Sunday in the death of both young men. They met 12 miles north of Franklinton, and a fight ensued, in which firearms were brought into requisition, and both were shot to death. Magee was a son of Dr. Hugh Magee, and Dillon the son of John Dillon,
a prominent farmer of that community.

Another shooting affair occurred in Washington Parish, 18 miles north of Franklinton, last Monday.
Sam Powell, a negro, attacked Mr.
Wilbert Shaw with a knife, when the latter shot and killed him.

The New Constitution

PUBLIC ROADS.

The Constitution of 1898 is the first in this State that has made any provision for public roads. As the articles in regard to this matter have been already published in full in the FARMER, it is only necessary to state that the general object sought to be obtained is to do away with the ineffective and burdensome method of working the public roads by the compulsory labor of the citizens, and to give the general provisions.

Under the new system the Police Juries may have the roads worked by the contract system, or may buy road machines and have the work done under their own supervision. When the Committee on Internal Improvements had the matter under consideration, they found that in several of the parishes the contract system had secured good roads, and in others the parishes had obtained good results
by buying their own road machines and working the roads under the supervision of officials appointed by the Police Juries.

Under the old system, the citizens were required to work twelve days each year, if the road overseers saw fit to exact that amount of work. The citizens of some towns were exempt from all contributions to the roads, though they were generally the ones most interested. Other towns were compelled to work their own streets and also the public roads.

Now the citizens of the towns
that maintain their own streets will be required to contribute one mill per annum and a tax upon all vehicles and bicycles, not less than twenty-five cents nor more than one dollar per annum, and will be exempted from the poll tax.
Outside the towns there will be fore Dec. 31. This tax goes to the public schools.

Thus persons offering to vote at the Congressional election of 1900, will have to exhibit poll tax receipts for 1898 and 1899. It is therefore important that every person who wishes to vote after April 1900, should be careful to pay his poll tax this year and every succeeding year.

[To be continued next week.]

CAMP CAFFERY

The ladies are going to present
Col. Hood's regiment with a handsome flag. Mrs. W. C. Flower, wife of Mayor Flower of New Orleans, is at the head of the movement, and the gift will be from the ladies of Covington and those from New Orleans now sojourning
here for the summer.

Col. Hood is now engaged in securing uniforms and equipment.
It is his desire to hurry to the front
as soon as the organization is completed, and for that reason he proposes to loose no time having the men put in condition for campaigning at the start.

The men from Shreveport, who will be known as company D, and at this moment commanded by Captain F. J. Looney. The local
is well known in north Louisiana and is able and careful in military tactics.

The Houston men, under Captain Fazio, will be in Company Captain Fazio is a trained fighter, having seen some duty on the plains and served for a long time in the Houston Light Cavalry.

Men from New Orleans, company I. Their captain is Captain E. B. Brown. They are the long-haired fellows who are the best of the bunch.

RECORD TAKEN FROM PAGES OF THE OLD ROBERT (BOB) MAGEE BIBLE COVERING THE EARLY LIFE OF THE ORIGINAL JOHN GRAVES.

John Graves was born Sept. 13, 1770 and died Jan. 21, 1858.

Sarah Graves (his wife) was born Oct. 4, 1773 and died Aug. 29, 1859. They were married Sept. 2, 1791. Where they were born or where they married I do not know, but they are supposed to be the parents of all the Graves now residing at Lone Star Community and in the outlying area.

The Robert Magee referred to at top of this page married Margaret, daughter of the original John & Sarah Graves, and to them was born a large family of children - 15, it seems - consisting of 7 girls and 8 boys, one of whom was Laurin R. Magee, the grandfather of Willie, Eddie and Ina Bell Campbell, whose old home is still standing in the Lone Star Community on what is known as the Edd Magee Road. Another son of Robt. and Mary Ann Magee-Hugh- had a large cotton plantation mostly between Bouie and Oakvale Church, it seems, and to the South from Oakvale and the story is that when the slaves were freed he - Hugh Magee - gave each family 80 acres of land and told them to go to work and make their own living, as he had no further use for the land. I am told Laurin Magee also gave some, or perhaps all, of his slaves a home when they were freed.

I do not have the record as to all of John Graves and Sarah Graves, his wife's, children but among others, he had sons named John Jr., who was known as Jackie, Humphrey, who is thought to be the father of a large family of sons, some of whom were named Jack, Humphrey, Jr., Alex, Hanse, Rance, Wesley, and perhaps Hanson, and also Jane who married Wash McRaney, Angy, who married Henry Redmond and perhaps one other girl but I do not know whom she married. I am not absolutely sure there was any girls other than Jane and Angie.

To Middleton, a son of the original John Graves and wife, who married a Herrington, I am told, only 2 daughters were born, one of whom was named Myrandy, who married Armlin Brown Hooks and the other married a Foles, Ben or Tom, was his name, and they, Middleton and wife, had no boys.

John, Jr. - Jackie as he was better known by - married Mariam ----- but I do not know whom she was before marriage. To this couple was born the following children:

Eliza Graves, born Feb. 1, 1822.

Elizabeth Jane was born Feb. 24, 1824, married Capt.
John McRaney.

Susan was born Aug. 11th, 1826.

Alexander Graves was born April 12, 1828, married Marcena Herrington.

Malinda Ann Graves was born May 21, 1831, married
Rich Williamson

Alfred Graves was born Feb. 1, 1834, married

Nancy Graves was born April 18th, 1837, married David McRaney.

Mariam Malinda Graves was born May 29th, 1841.

According to the monuments in the Lone Star Cemetery Eliza Jane Graves married Captain John McRaney and to this union was born John M., Duncan C., Cornelius, Mack and Sandy for boys, and Jane, who married John Kelley and had no children, and Angie who married Mack Kelley, who had several children and this list can be had by contacting most any of the older people on Dry Creek. Alfred Graves married Catherine McLain and they had no children. Alexander married Marcena Herrington and they had no children. Dates of their birth and death may be had from monuments in Lone Star Cemetery. One of the daughters of Jackie Graves and wife married Rich Williamson and their dates may be had from their monuments in Lone Star Cemetery.

Daniel McRaney, who I think was a brother to Captain John McRaney, father of John M. and others, married a Nancy Graves and I am all but sure she was the daughter of Jackie Graves.

Family record of the late John Graves and wife, Sarah, who, reportedly came to this area from some place in North Carolina about 1790. There is no markers at their graves but are thought to be buried either at what is known as the Robert Magee Cemetery at Old Jaynesville, or in the old cemetery 3 or 4 miles North of Jaynesville on East Bank of Silver Creek on the Brooks Berry place.

John Graves was born Sept. 13, 1770 and died Jan. 21, 1858. Sarah Graves was born Oct. 4, 1773 and died Aug. 29, 1857, or 1859. The 7 or 9 is not clear on my record. They were married Sept. 2, 1791. Some of their children were as follows. Margaret Graves was born June 19, 1795 and married Robert Magee, who was born Feb. 14, 1793, who died Nov. 11, 1859, and his wife died 12/22/1880. I think they are buried in a wooded area near Hopewell Presbyterian Church. John Graves, Jr. - known as Jackie - was born March 31, 1800. Death date not know. Mariam Graves - maiden name not known - was born Aug. 6, 1802 and they were married Feb. 23, 1819. Date of death not known but buried at Dry Creek - Kaintuck - Cemetery, I think, but no markers at their graves. Children of John Jr. Graves - Jackie - and wife, Mariam, were as follows - Eliza Graves, born Feb. 1, 1822, and married Captain John McRaney and their children were as follows: John M. Duncan, Cornelius, Mack, Sandy, Jane and Angie. John M. McRaney married Almedia Coulter, who is buried at Dry Creek Cemetery. Then he married Adline Campbell, who is also buried at Dry Creek Cemetery.

Then he married Francis Norris and I don't know where she is buried, but not at Dry Creek. He is also buried at Dry Creek Cemetery and dates may be had from their monuments. Captain John McRaney and wife are also buried at Dry Creek and dates on monuments. Cornelius McRaney married a Herrington. Sandy McRaney married Florence Mathis. Don't know whom Mack married. Duncan McRaney married a Brinson, I think, but am not sure and he and wife are buried at Collins. Angie married Mack Kelley and Jane married John Kelley. Most of the McRaney older children are buried at Lone Star - Kaintuck - Cemetery and dates on tombs. A daughter named Elizabeth Jane Graves was born Feb. 24, 1824, and she could be the Eliza Jane, whose name is on Captain John McRaney's tomb as his wife, instead of the Jane listed above. If so, I don't know whom Jane married.

Susan Graves was born Aug. 11, 1826. Don't know whom she married or when she died, or where she is buried.

Alexander Graves was born Apr. 12, 1828, and married Marcena Herrington, I think, and don't think they had any children. I think they have markers at their graves in Lone Star Cemetery. Kaintuck.

Alfred Graves was born 2-1-1834, married Katherine McLain, I think, had no children and is buried at Lone Star Cemetery, also known as Kaintuck or Dry Creek Cemetery. A marker will give you the date of his death. Malinda Ann Graves was born May 21, 1831, and married Rich Williamson, I think. She is buried at Dry Creek Cemetery and has a tomb with dates on it. Nancy Graves was born April 18th, 1837, and married Daniel McRaney and I do not have date of her death, or place of burial. Perhaps at cemetery near Bowie Bridge near Double Churches. They are parents of John C., Joseph, also known as G. W., and Vernon, all of whom married Campbell Sisters and a son George, who died young, I think. They also have several girls, some of whom I can tell you whom they married.

Mariam Malinda Graves was born May 29, 1841. Don't know whom she married, when she died, or where she is buried.

The above gets all of John Jr. - Jackie - Graves children by his wife but the story is he had a total of 37 children by various women, one of whom was a part Choctaw Indian named Mary Foster. The Indian woman had Mandy and Parthena, who married Tom and John Draughn, and Emma, who married Jake McInnis, Laura who never married. Sarah & Matilda, who married Samp Pope and Wesley who married Violet Graves, brother of

The John Graves and wife of the 1700s, had several children, one of whom was named Humphrey, I am told, and I think he was the father Jack, Wesley, one Alex, but not the son of John Jr. - Jackie - Humphrey, Hanse, Ranse, and perhaps another son, or more, along with Jane who married Wash McRaney, Angie, who married Henry Redmond and one other daughter, whose name I can't recall, but am told she married and moved to La. and never returned.

In addition to the Humphrey, Sr., who was the son of the original John Graves, John Sr. & wife Sarah, had a son named Middleton, who was the father of the wife of Armlin Brown Hooks who were the parents of Jim, Andrew & Jap Hooks and also Mary Ann, who married Albert Campbell, Ada, who married Newton Campbell, Alice who married Dunk Boleware and died at about age of 22, giving birth to a baby, I am told and Caroline who died relatively young and was never married.

Middleton Graves, whose wife's given name was Matilda, but I don't know her maiden name, had only 2 children, I am told - both girls, one of whom married the Hooks referred to above and her name was Myrandy. His other daughter whose given name I have but can't find it, or recall from memory, married a Foles, whose given name was either Tom, or Ben, and they had several children but I don't have much on them other than one was named Elom, who lived with his mother, Matilda, until her death and for "Taking care of her," she gave him her half of she and her husband - Middleton's - estate, and after she died Elom married Sarah Foles, widow of Joe Hudson and the mother of John, Theodore, Luther, and Homer Hudson. Elom never had any children, died before his wife Sarah Hudson Foles did and she inherited his estate, which, I understand, is the basis for the title the Hudson children have for a title to the land they own near mouth of Dry Creek between there and Bouie.

The story is Middleton Graves had a half section of land - 320 acres - which he bought from Fielding Holloway 12½ cents per acre - $50.00 for the entire 320 acres - which is a part of the records of the Chancery Clerk's Office of Covington County, Miss., and I am told he gave his daughter, Myrandy, who married A. B. Hooks what land he had on East side of Dry Creek and the daughter who married the Foles what land he had on West side of Dry Creek. He also had several slaves and other personal property, which he divided as nearly equal as possible between his 2 daughters and I am told he died about the time of the Civil War and is buried at Lone Star or Dry Creek Cemetery, I suppose, but there is no marker to his grave there.

The information I have is that the 3 brothers named above - Humphrey, Middleton and John Jr. who was called Jackie - had one sister who married Robert Magee, the father of Laurin and Dunk Magee, along with several other children who were mostly girls but I don't know much about the offspring of this family, other than Laurin and Dunk and their offspring is too recent to try to list here, since anyone interested can get more authentic information than I can give, suffice it to say this Robert (Bob) Magee and wife had a large family and about all the Magees of this area are supposed to have come from their children. One of the Bob Magee daughters married a Terrell, of Terrelltown, I am told, but I don't have much information on this marriage.

Briefly stated the above just about adds up to the fact that most all native born citizens from Mt. Carmel to Williamsburg, and beyond, are related to the original John and Sarah Graves who were married Sept. 2, 1791 and came to this area supposedly from one of the Carolinas.

The above prepared by V. O. Campbell, Sr. Nov. 22, 1970.

Dear Pat,

Enclosed is a copy of the Magee family information I wrote you about. You are welcome to use any of the data, but please don't publish the text of the document.

Felix Winchester Magee was a grandson of Jacob Magee and Mary Scott, through their son Daniel. Felix wrote his family record for his youngest son Philip Henry, only a few years before Felix died in 1901. My husband is a great grandson of Philip Henry and his first wife Addie Lee Matthews. Apparently the original record was at one time in the hands of a son (E. R. Magee) of Philip Henry and his second wife Icy Hammond. About twenty years ago an uncle of my husband worked on the Magee family history; his records were left with his son after his death. I have recently received from him, through another cousin, a copy of Felix's record. I don't know if this cousin has the original or if his father had gotten a copy from his uncle E. R.

The original appears to have been written in a journal, with numbered pages. In my transcription, the page numbers in blocks [] are those from the book. Felix loved poetry, and there are copies of printed poems pasted throughout the book, and some copied by hand. Apparently Felix wrote letters to relatives to compile his genealogy, and copied their replies into his book. I've noticed a few mistakes, obviously made in copying. I've copied the names as they were written; some are spelled differently each time mentioned. Considering he didn't have a Xerox machine or typewriter, I think Felix did a pretty good job.

Even though Felix moved to Texas, there is a lot of data about the Mississippi families he left behind. I would have appreciated more dates, but at least the names give me something to work with.

Does the area in MS you are researching include Hinds and Madison Counties? I need some help with Ewing and Ross families in those areas, up to about 1870.

If you know of anyone with information on Felix's grandfather Jacob Magee and his ancestors, I would appreciate it if you would pass along my address to them. I've picked up a little on Jacob from *P, but nothing is documented and some of it conflicts. Thanks for any help.

Sincerely,

Barbara

you can find out for 200 years back. I have been corresponding with Mr. John A. M. Pasmore of Philadelphia PA who claims to be a descendant of the catching family. He writes me that he has looked up 2000 of our family. He is writing a history of the family in two books of 500 pages to each book. I would advise you to write to him (John A. M. Pasmore, Philadelphia PA) and you can get all the information you want. The two books will cost you $10, our family (1 volume) $5. The Catching family came from the Moores, Maryland and Pensilvania, came from England and landed in the U. S. 1671, so says Pasmore. I would be pleased to meet you and have you to visit me. Laurence Dickson came to see me in 1857. I have not heard from him since. I did not know what had become of Dr. Massie's family. The Dickson family are my closest kin. I often see the Dickson grave yard. The place is now owned by Ed Conn and is still a good place. I would like for you to call on Mary Miller and Charles Bullock at Garland TX. Montgomery Norman, Aunt Caroline Catching's son, has a son in Texas. He is a mail distributer on a RR running from Dallas, Texas. If you will write to me again for information I will do all that I can to get it for you. The country has changed a great deal since you left. When you were here all the wealth was on the extreme eastern and western parts of the county. Now the wealth is in the hills or Cristal part of the Co. We have one manufacturer in town. Wess[on] & two other large towns Hazelhurst and C. Springs with about 800 inhabitants to town. In Copiah our population is 40,000, is a fine class county in the state. I live near Hazelhurst. I sold my father's old place [to] Barney Allen, a son of E. H. Allen. Cousin Martha Allen I think is 86 years old and is getting very feeble. I don't think she will live long. Will you have our Joe Baily in your state. I know him like one of my own children. He is a good boy. He was raised in Hazelhurst. I hope you will excuse me for his time and write to me again.

Respectfully, B. F. Catching

My husband died in 1881. I have one sister and one brother, a small number. I return the letter you were good enough to enclose to me, which will be well to keep for your grandchildren. I will be glad to hear any other points of interest you may gain about the ancestors. My father was a Knight Templar before he died and the Masonic Lodge here, No. 394, is called T. J. Catching Lodge. (I wrote to her that her father was one of the charter members of Quitman Lodge No. 17, Georgetown, Copiah Co MS. About 1830 he was first W. M.) copy of a letter from Dr. Joseph Blair Catching of Georgetown, Copiah Co MS, 13 Aug 1882, to his niece Mrs. Martha C. Magee, Bryan TX.

Mrs. Martha C. Magee. My Dear niece, we were very much pleased on receipt of your letter to hear from you and to know that you were yet spared to your family. I am tring to live so through God's blessings to meet my friends and relations in Heaven, and if we never meet again on Earth, I hope and trust that we will have a happy meeting in Heaven.

I had never heard how David died until you wrote, and as you say I am the last one of our family and cannot expect to live but a short time. My health at present is very bad and I had a spell of Pneumonia bout the middle of May that for 10 days my friends had given me out, but by the mercies of God, I am still spared.

Now to answer your questions. Pally's son James left a widow and three children (his last wife, she was a Corley) and by his first wife, 3 children, 2 girls and one son. His name is Robert and he is a doctor practicing. Sister Pally's Palatia, 2 daughters Matildy and Caroline, married. Matildy married E. L. Norman and has 2 children, boy and girl Seymore and Mary. Caroline married Alex Alford, has some 6 or 8 children, one grown daughter named Emma. E. L. Norman on Bahala in Lawrence County. Alex Alford lives near Crystal Springs - write to them and they will answer you.

Your Aunt Caroline Norman has only 2 children living, Major James Montgomery Norman (Clerk of Chancery Court of Copiah County) and Palatia Norman (Mrs. Steell) a widow with one grown daughter name Caroline, and they live at Crystal Springs with a grand child, a daughter of sister Caroline's daughter Mary, who is dead. Sister's other and younger son Philip accidentally shot himself up on the Yazoo while out hunting, no one with [him] at the time.

Your Aunt Lorindy has 5 children living. Matilda I think is living over in LA. You recollect she married Mat Kay first and then Hickman. Matildy's brother B. F. Catching, see page 19. Her other 4 children was by Rev. Mr. Tally, names John, Hattie, Maggie and Edward. The girls married and have homes, one near Vicksburg (Hattie Gibson), the other on Copiah Creek, a part of the old Moses Norman place (Maggie). John and Edward wandering around, not settled.

Your Aunt Angelina was living on your old homestead at the time of her death, but died at Crystal Springs. She has 8 children living. William in Hinds Co, Emmy, Fannie, John, Nealy, and Ed in Copiah Co, Polly in Hinds Co, and Hattie in TN. John Cornelious, all single.

Claim your old home as their home, but none stay there. No one stays there at present, but a lot of negroes. The old grave yard was fixed up in good order a short time ago by John Joseph, a son of Cousin Benjamin Catching, lives on and owns Cousin Ben's old place. There is six of Cousin Ben's children living. Joseph H. is all the one living here. You ask my age. I was 60 years old the 13th of last May, so you see there is but little difference in our ages. You ask about my father's and your Pa's old stock of negroes. Well, there is several of my Pa's. Old Uncle Daniel and children, Jerry, Nise, Delila (I believe she is still living) and Dennis. This is all of Uncle Daniel's that I recollect now. There is others but I forget them. As to Pa's, there is old Uncle Peter and wife Mary, and Rube. I have not seen Rube in 15 years. he is living over in Simpson Co or Rankin County. Peter lives out here in the piney woods, about 4 miles from my house, with one of his sons. He has a large family of children and grandchildren. camp ground when I received your welcome letter and met Uncle Peter. He was delighted when I told him that I had just received a letter from you and that you had asked about him. he said for me to send his love to all of you, that he would be delighted to see you all one more time.

Cousin Elbert H. Allen died on the 3rd of Aug and was buried at the old place, in the old family grave yard. He was a good citizen, and said that he was ready and prepared to die. I wrote in my others that he had joined the church. I hope and believe that he has gone to a better world. Let us live our lives so as to be able to meet him there. His children. My son Philip married Harriet. Bob Allen married B. F. Catching's daughter. A son of brother William by sister Lorindy. I forgot him above. Seymore Allen is here, at his father's E.H.A. an old bachelor. Well my dear niece, I have tried to answer all your questions. You must write again and just put as many questions for me to answer as you can think of. Will take pleasure in answering them the best I can. We had a good camp meeting, very orderly, a good deal of rain, about 20 accessions to the church. I do not know the number of conversions. We had some very fine preaching. By the by, what church do you belong to. May God bless and preserve you and may we live so as to meet in Heaven. Your affectionate uncle,

Dear Felix,

E. H. Allen's sister Angelina is living and her granddaughter Miss Kate Gatlin is now in my back gallery on a visit to see my girls, her and cousin Seymore Catching's daughter Sally. They have been here for several days. Will go back to McComb City next week, where they live. Angelina's son died of yellow fever in McComb several years ago. I have not seen old friend George Briley in 5 or 6 years. He lives 15 or 20 miles above me. Mrs. Lanicy Brily has been dead for some 10 years. She died in Georgetown.

Our corn, peas, potatoes are good and cotton we tear is injured by too much rain. It has rained here nearly every day now 4 or 5 weeks. I cannot get a chance to lay by my cotton. All well except myself and I am up.

Very truly your uncle Joe

Felix W. Magee, Sr., Iola, Grimes Co TX

Cousin Felix, I was glad to receive your kind and affectionate letter, but makes me feel sad to know that all of those that emigrated from here to far away old Texas are dead. My father's family were at Uncle Daniel's the day they bid us farewell, September 1841. Mother and Aunt were filled with sorrow. They felt that they never would see each other again on this earth. I believe the old patriarchal way is the best - the old parents to own much land, and settle their children around them. Col. King and I were parents of nine children. They are all dead but Ben and Eva. Ben is a good lawyer, but his politics will not do in these ballot box stuffing times. His father was voted governor and stuffed out - the Democrats have finished the infamous race. You remember some years back, a man dared not call himself an independent and so he was a Republican - down him, kill him, if Jefferson were to return to Earth what would he think of his Democracy. The Robert Harris cousin Emma saw was the son of Eveline and Merry Harris. Give my love to cousin Nancy, and she must write to me a letter telling all about cousin David and the children, Adrian particularly - the only child when they left here. You do the same. Say something about Byron, about Daniel, Henry, Irvin and his family. Tell Uncle Walton's children. Let me have some little letters from them. An old sister of my father married a Jones and moved to Texas many years ago. If you know anything of them please write me. Do not know where they settled. My father was born in Augusta GA, 4 Jan 1804, died in Arkansas at Henry's in 1886. Mother born in Pike Co MS, 3 Oct 1807, died in Gallatin MS 1857. I am satisfied God took her home for she saw nothing but trouble on trouble on this earth. Please let me hear from Bob Harris of Texas. His nieces the Misses Moreheads own the noted Brown Wells 6 miles west of old Gallatin. It is all can do to make a support. Their mother was Amnthis Harris, the girl you escorted home to Brandon from a visit to my father's family below Georgetown. Cousin that has been [a] long time ago. (It was in 1836. F.W.M.) Do not fail to let me hear from you some times. It is pleasant to recall occurrences and incidents of our younger and happier days. Then we lived in the future - not in the past. May you have contentment to end is my prayer.

Cousin Emma is the daughter of my cousin Christeen Allen, a son of my uncle Felix Allen. Cousin Emma married Mr. Kirkendall. The Morehead girls' mother was Amnthis Harris, the daughter of my cousin Mary Raglin and Dr. Wiley P. Harris, brother of C.W.H. & B.H. Kolt Harris, of Texas, is son of Dr. W.P.H. and Mary H. The Magees

Indians raided first Magee family homesite in Washington Parish

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The histories of Washington Parish families published earlier in this Bicentennial year by the Daily News did not include a family which may well be the parish's largest, the Magees. Now the Daily News has obtained the history of the Magees of Washington Parish, originally compiled by Dauntun Gibbs of Franklinton in 1954, and will publish it in several installments, beginning today.)

By DAUNTUN GIBBS

The story of William Magee I and his descendants is a great story. William Magee I and his family was one of the first families to settle in Washington Parish.

According to history, their home was raided at least once by Indians. Pieces of pottery broken by the Indians in this raid were to be found about the old home-site up until a few years ago.

Through the years the family experienced many hardships, surviving them all and today is probably the largest family in Washington Parish. Hardly an old family in Washington Parish without a connection with the Magee family.

Much of the history of Washington Parish revolves about William Magee I and his descendants. Although it has never been confirmed, it is generally believed that he was a Revolutionary War soldier. Since then members of his family have gone out from Washington Parish as soldiers in every war experienced by this country.

Most of the old Methodist and Baptist Churches in Washington Parish outside of the city of Bogalusa were established through the efforts of his descendants. His descendants were, also, early members of Lodge 101, F&AM in Franklinton, the first Masonic Lodge established in Washington Parish. His descendants have had a part in practically every civic movement undertaken in Washington Parish.

Many helped

The story of William Magee I and his descendants, contained in these pages, though briefly written, is the result of a great amount of research and cooperation on the part of a great host of descendants scattered throughout Louisiana and Mississippi, a great many of whom have passed on since the project was first undertaken. It is not possible to name all of those who worked on the project. However, there are some without whose efforts it could not have been completed.

First and foremost among this group is Mrs. Bickham Christian, 644 Herndon Ave., Shreveport, La. Mr. Christian, a direct descendant of Washington Parish's Major Benjamin Bickham (War of 1812), and whose family intermarried with that of William Magee I, has expended a great deal of time and money, traveling over the United States in search of history and records concerning the Magee family. The same is true of Mrs. Boyd C. Edwards, Northview Dr., Jackson, Miss., wife of Dr. Boyd Edwards. The late R. A. (Bob) Magee who died in February, 1964, spent much of his last few months seeking information in old cemeteries. Much of our first-hand information came from a few remaining great-grandchildren of William Magee I. Among these are Mrs. Clara Bateman Magee, wife of the late Mayor Gene Magee; Fred Magee, Leon Bankston; George W. (Uncle Wince) Magee; Mrs. D. A. Self; Marcus Brumfield, and the late C.S.E. (Zeke) Babington. Rev. Wes Brown, who married a great-great-granddaughter, also supplied information.

Records searched

Other sources of information are various church records, census records, Masonic records, cemetery records, War Department records, family

Bible records, marriage records, court records and the history of Pike County, Miss. (1813). The late Judge Prentiss B. Carter's History of Washington Parish, along with the help of his daughter, Miss Texana Carter, supplied much information. Another great-granddaughter, Mrs. George (Alice) Foll, who has lived near Hayes Creek Cemetery most of her life, was of great help.

Although William Magee I and his wife, Mary, have been buried for many years (William since 1837 and Mary since 1867) in graves not marked permanently, the location of the graves has been handed down from generation to generation.

Nathaniel Graves was the first member of the family known to have assumed the task of looking after the graves. He married Arcada Magee, one of the older granddaughters of William Magee I, and through her inherited the original place including the cemetery site. Nathaniel Graves set aside four acres surrounding the cemetery as the site for the Hayes Creek Church and Cemetery. After his death in 1893, the task of looking after the graves fell to his two sons, the late Willie N. Graves and the late Thomas J. Graves, and still later to several of his grandchildren, including Mrs. George Foll and family.

Children unidentified

For many years and up until recently when the newly formed Hayes Creek Cemetery Association did extensive repair remodeling work on the grounds, the graves of William Magee I and his wife were enclosed with a wall or fence of sandstone rock. The graves of two children, also, were included in the group of four graves. The two children, their identity long since lost, were said to have been members of the family of the wife of William Magee I.

Permanent markers at the graves of William Magee I and his wife, Mary, was undertaken shortly after 1900 by the late W. W. Babington, a great-grandson.

His efforts were cut short by a financial panic which swept away most of his means. The next effort was the one now in progress, which was started about two years ago by Mr. Leon Bankston, a great-grandson. Mr. Bankston saw that the sandstone wall enclosing the graves had been moved and realized that before long the location of the graves would probably be lost forever. Mr. Bankston undertook to arouse interest in the project with a committee of the following descendants assisting him: Rufus Bateman (chairman), Leon Bankston, Mrs. Mouton Bickham, Mrs. A. G. Magee, Jr., N. L. Smith, Ferd Magee, John Brumfield and Dauntun Gibbs.

Family spreads out

We regret that this project is not as complete as we would like to have it. Frequently through the years various members of the family moved out into other sections of the country maintaining no contact with the Washington Parish branch of the family; in other cases the contact was gradually lost with the passing of time. Such conditions greatly limited our information. As is to be expected in such an undertaking, too, we have made some mistakes for which we apologize.

Although you may not be aware of it now, after studying these records you too may find that you have a connection with the family of William Magee I.

The Magees

First Magee in parish lived at Hayes Creek

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This series, originally written in 1954, tells the story of the early members of the Magee family, probably the largest of the families in Washington Parish descended from pioneer settlers of the area.)

By DAUNTON GIBBS

This is the story of William Magee I of Washington Parish and some of his descendants.

The story is so much like a jigsaw puzzle with some pieces either missing or out of place. Some of it is authentic, some of it may be doubtful and some of it contradictory, but it concerns a great family, great in its own rights and because it reaches out and touches so many fine families.

Almost every family in Washington Parish has a connection with the Magee family.

William Magee was born in Georgia or the Carolinas. He was one of the first settlers in Washington Parish. He first settled in Mississippi and then moved to Hayes Creek in Washington Parish just after 1800.

His son, Zachariah, born in 1802, stated in the 1850 census of Washington Parish, that he was born in Mississippi.

The log-house home of William Magee stood just south of the present Hayes Creek Baptist Church. This was long before Hayes Creek Baptist Church was established.

There were few settlers in the Hayes Creek Community at this time. The only Baptist Church in existence near William Magee during his lifetime, was the Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church which stood on the banks of Bogue Chitto River just back of the present Ferd Magee place.

This church, which was established about 1811, was the first Protestant church in Louisiana. William Magee was said to have been active in that church and no doubt was one of its organizers.

William Magee I was born in 1762 and died in 1837. His wife, Mary Margaret James, was born in 1771 and died in 1867. Both are buried in the Hayes Creek Cemetery.

Their children:

(1) John Magee (1792-1865) married Sarah Magee (1800-1889);

(2) Hezekiah Magee (1796-1870, married Dicey Magee (1800-1878);

(3) Benjamin Magee (?-1847), married Terry (maiden name unknown) (1801-1858);

(4) Jeremiah Magee (1801-1864), married Linia Davis;

(5) Zachariah Magee (1802-

1852), married Elva Davis (1802-1879);

(6) Mary Polly Magee (1807-1860), married Stephen Ellis (1795-1869);

(7) William Magee II (1813-1847), married Harriett Bickham (1816-1876).

Note—After the death of Benjamin Magee in 1847, his widow, Terry Magee, married Rev. Jesse Crawford, early Baptist preacher, who lived around Silver Springs, Miss.

Early family burying places include: John Magee, Clifton Cemetery; Hezekiah Magee, Magee Cemetery (west of Franklinton on Amite Highway); Benjamin Magee, Donald Warren Place (two miles north of Clifton); Jeremiah Magee, Magee Cemetery (1 mile north of Enon on Franklinton-Enon Highway); Zachariah Magee, Fred Jenkins place on Franklinton-Enon Highway; Mary Polly Magee Ellis Cemetery in Franklinton.

Note—The 1810 Census record of Mississippi shows another female in the family of William Magee I. Her name is Dicey Magee and could have been his daughter, the oldest child. She married Duncan McIntire of Amite County, Miss. in 1809. We have no further information concerning her.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This series, originally written in 1954, tells the story of the early members of the Magee family, probably the largest of the families in Washington Parish descended from pioneer settlers of the area.)

By DAUNTON GIBBS

Benjamin Magee (1797-1847), was the third child of William Magee I (1762-1837) and Mary Margaret James (1771-1867).

The exact date of the birth of Benjamin Magee is not known, however it is known that he was born in Mississippi shortly before 1800, and before his parents moved to Hayes Creek in Washington Parish, Louisiana.

The maiden name of his wife is not known. In an affidavit signed by her in 1857 she gives her name as Terry Magee. She was born in 1801.

Benjamin Magee served under Gen. Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans, which was fought in January of 1815.

Benjamin, along with his brothers John and Ezekiah, enlisted in December, 1814. They were in a group of some forty odd men who camped at Jackson Springs near Ben's Ford until Jackson and his staff came along enroute to New Orleans.

The Magee brothers served in Capt. William Bickham's company of the 13th Regiment under command of Col. Thomas Warner. They were discharged in March, 1815, at Madisonville Navy Yard.

Benjamin Magee settled about two miles north of Clifton, on what is now the Donald Warren place. His home was a large two-story log house. The remains of two of his chimneys can be seen there today.

According to history, he was a good farmer and was noted as a hunter. He died at his home on April 22, 1847, and was buried near his home. A government marker is on order for his grave, which is unmarked at present.

After the death of Benjamin Magee, his widow married Rev. Jesse Crawford, early Baptist minister who preached at the old Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church on Bogue Chitto River near the present Ford Magee home. According to history, after her death her body was returned to the place and buried beside her first husband, Benjamin. A third grave was believed to have been a child. By DAUNTON GIBBS

Hezekiah Magee (1796-1870), second child of William Magee I (1762-1837) and Mary Margaret James (1771-1867), was born in what at that time was Pike County, Miss. He came as a child with his parents to Hayes Creek, La., in Washington Parish where he was raised.

Hezekiah married Dicey Magee of Pike County, Miss. She was said to have been his cousin. Her parents were believed to have been John Magee and Bethany Scott.

The Magees

Polly's husband was multi-faceted leader

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the concluding episode in a series of articles chronicling the forebears of what is probably Washington Parish's largest family, the Magees.)

By DAUNTON GIBBS

Mary (Polly) Magee (1807-1860) was the sixth child of William Magee I (1762-1837) and Mary Margaret James (1771-1867).

Mary Polly Magee was born about the time her parents moved to Washington Parish. She married the Rev. Stephen Ellis, first local Methodist preacher in Franklinton.

Mary Polly Magee and her husband Rev. Stephen Ellis (1795-1869) moved to Franklinton about 1842. Their home stood on the banks of Mile Branch just north of the Canning Plant. It was torn down several years ago.

Prior to coming to Franklinton, Rev. Ellis had distinguished himself as a soldier in the Indian wars, as a leader in the Methodist movement in Pike County, Miss., having helped found several churches, and as school teacher.

In Franklinton he was one of the founders of the Franklinton Methodist Church. He served Washington Parish as one of the first clerks of court, and as superintendent of education. He became both prosperous and prominent. He was one of the early members and officers of Franklinton Masonic Lodge No. 101.

He was the son of John Ellis and Sarah Ellis, who moved to Washington Parish via Mississippi, and settled across Bogue Chitto River from Franklinton. The Ellis family is buried in the Ellis Cemetery in Franklinton. This cemetery was named after them.

The Magees

Jeremiah Magees made his home in the wilderness near Enon

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This series, originally written in 1954, tells the story of the early members of the Magee family, probably the largest of the families in Washington Parish descended from pioneer settlers of the area.)

Jeremiah Magee (1801-1866), was the fourth child of William Magee I (1762-1837).

Jeremiah Magee was born in Mississippi before his parents moved to Hayes Creek in Washington Parish.

Very little is known about the life of Jeremiah Magee. However, court records say that he married Linea Davis in Marion County, Miss., on Jan. 10, 1828.

After his marriage, he settled just north of Enon on the Franklinton-Enon Highway, (see note below). The site of his home is on the east side of the present highway and east of the family cemetery. The cemetery is on the west side of the present highway.

According to church records, Linea Davis, wife of Jeremiah Magee, was a charter member of the Enon Baptist Church, and it is supposed that Jeremiah likewise was a charter member of the church. (Initial church charter shows Linea Magee and "Jerry Magee" as charter members—L. A. Magee).

According to history handed down through the family, the surrounding country was very wild when Jeremiah and his family established their home. Frequently, bear and other wild animals raided their hog pens.

Their children and grandchildren are:

(1) Eldridge Magee (1829-1891) married Margaret Ann Roberts (1839-1928).

Their children: Joseph Monroe (1855-1862); Linea Amanda (1857-1952); married Adolphus Gayer (1852-1913); Jeremiah M. (1859-1937), married Ludie Bullock; William David (1861-1881), died young; Ida Rosalene (1864-), married

Green; Dr. Donies Eldridge (1882-1965), married Novie Pierce (1893).

(3) Dr. Hosea Magee (1846-1912), married Frances Ellen Flowers; Their children: Hosea (1884); Henry (1886-1920), dentist, married Vallie Holmes; Flowers (1889-1926), married Olive David Magee; Mamie (1885-), married Dr. H. L. Carruth.

(4) Salena Magee, married Pete Richardson. Their children: Jesse Richardson, married Nettie Perry; Minnie Richardon, married Joe Penton.

P. S. Note: We learn through Dr. Theo. W. Gayer, son of Adolphus and Linea Amanda Gayer, that the actual homesite of Jeremiah Magee was two miles south of the Enon Bogue Chitto River bridge on the Lee Road. Jeremiah was a big farmer and owned many slaves. He turned the operation of his farm over to his son, Eldridge, during his late life, but continued to be known as the "Old Master" by the Negroes.

1976

The 1976 Bicentennial Year was an appropriate time for the establishment of a pioneer settlement on the Washington Parish Fairgrounds. The Franklinton Garden Club chose as their chief 1975 project the initiation of such a settlement. The Club presented to the Washington Parish Fair Association the plan of moving a rural home to a site on the north bank of the beautiful Mile Branch of the fairgrounds. The idea was accepted, and in August of 1975, the log cabin of George and Martha Knight (built in 1857) was donated by their heirs and with the help of many supporters and friends, moved from Enon to the site. This cabin, which measures 18 by 22 feet, is made of split logs and hand-hewn sills and is notched and pinned and is designated as the Knight Cabin. After location in the Fairgrounds, with the aid and help of numerous persons, many of whom donated time and materials, the cabin was roofed, a mud chimney was built by Mr. Urban Dardar, and was furnished and open in time for the thousands of fair visitors of 1976.

A contest was held and the name of Mile Branch Settlement was selected from over one hundred fifty names submitted and was suggested by Miss Stella Magee.

The following donations to the settlement in 1976 were:

A log corn crib built circa 1875 by Claiborn Blackwell, the son of one of Washington Parish's early pioneers, Nathan Blackwell. The crib is today one-half of an early dogtrot-type barn having a breezeway down its center which was often used as a shelter for a wagon.

The land upon which it was built was owned by Claiborn Blackwell. In 1875 he sold the property, including the barn, to his son, John C. Blackwell. It remained in John's possession and was used by him on his farm until his death in 1896.

In later years this property and the corn crib were acquired by Mr. Austin Branch and later by his son, Mr. Henry Ray Branch and was donated to the Mile Branch Settlement by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ray Branch in memory of Mr. Austin Branch, and is designated as the Branch Corn Crib.

A split rail fence given by the Emerson Kemp family and built by Andrew Kemp in 1902. A pig pen made of oak 2 x 4's and given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thomas; a privy given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renner and originally built by Mr. Esco Fendlason at the home of Mr. John Fendlason. Regretfully, this pig pen and privy are no longer located in the Settlement. Due to extreme deterioration they were removed. The syrup mill was moved from its former location on the Fairgrounds into the Settlement area.

In 1977 two additional houses were moved to the site and appropriately furnished in time for the opening of the fair. One of these buildings is a log house donated by Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Sylvest and built by Nehemiah Sylvest in 1880-1881. It was built while his family of five children lived in the smokehouse with a dirt floor. Nehemiah (1846-1916) was the son of Francis Sylvest (1808-1896) born in Portugal, and wife, Martha Stevenson (1820-1882). Nehemiah married Lenora Sylvest (1855-1935), daughter of Emmanuel Sylvest (1821-1901) born in Portugal, and wife, Nancy Warner Kennedy (1826-1886).

The family grew and the house "grew" from a single "pen to a double pen" with a hall and front porch. A lean-to room was added to the back of each original room, one of which became the parlor with a pump organ. Saw mills came. A boxed dining room, kitchen and back porch were added on the north side at the rear with a board walk to join the porch to the hall. Fear of fire led the pioneer family to have the kitchen near but not connected to the main house.

Twelve children were reared in this house and needless to say these twelve families left many descendants, many of which still reside in Washington Parish.

The other building, a board and batton house made of long leaf yellow pine and probably sawed by a water mill, was donated by Misses Sadie and Ethel Magee in memory of their brother, Jacob Nathaniel "Big Jake" Magee. A portion of this house was placed in back of the Sylvest house to be used as the kitchen and dining area. The rest of this house was used in the restoration of the George and Martha Knight Cabin placed in the Mile Branch Settlement in 1976.

This house was built by Marcus Magee on land which he had purchased from his father, Jacob Magee, and was built about 1909-1910. Jacob Nathaniel "Big Jake" Magee was born September 19, 1895, died December 3, 1973. Although this building was not moved into the Settlement until 1977, it was the first house donated to the Mile Branch Settlement Project.

The combination of these two houses now forms the Sylvest - Magee house in the Mile Branch Settlement.

In 1978 three buildings were added to the Mile Branch Settlement and opened to the public during the Washington Parish Fair.

The old Mt. Hermon School is one of the these. Shortly after the Civil War, due to the large number of children in the Mt. Hermon area and the long distance they had to travel to attend school at Silver Springs,

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogical Dept.
Magee Family

Mississippi, the residents of this community joined together and built the first Mt. Hermon School, a one room log school house on property donated by David Jackson Ott. This structure was replaced in 1885 by a one room frame building furnished with wood desks and benches, seating the girls on one side of the room and the boys on the other. There was also a stage for performances by the pupils, and was also used by the community. There were two teachers and while there were no grades they went through the McGuffeys Fifth Reader.

Not long after two rooms were added. A Primary Room and a Music Room. The Primary Room is all that remains of the school and is the structure that has been moved into the Mile Branch Settlement, and was donated to the Settlement by the Denman Ott Estate, and will serve as the School in the Mile Branch Settlement.

Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church, the First Baptist church in Louisiana and the first of two Protestant Churches of any Denomination organized in the State of Louisiana and was located on Half-Moon Bluff on the Bogue Chitto River about 4½ miles north of Franklinton, Louisiana. The Church takes its name from the half-moon shape of the bluff on the river.

Shortly after the West Florida Rebellion in 1810, which ended Spanish control of this area, a few settlers met at Half-Moon Bluff and organized the Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church and erected a small log building with a clay floor about 200 feet East of the Bluff facing South. Between October 1811 and October 12, 1812 this church requested Constitution from the Mississippi Baptist Association and was constituted and admitted to the Mississippi Baptist Association October 12, 1812. Nearly all of the Baptist churches established in this entire area since have roots reaching back to the original Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church.

The original site of this church continued to be used for many years after the church was dissolved for such purposes as baptizing and picnics. The Washington Rifles camped there during June of 1861. In October 1912 the Washington Parish Baptist Association met there to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of this Church and met again at the Bluff during its 1934 session to dedicate a bronze marker placed on the clay floor of the original church, and met there again in November 1962 to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of the establishment of Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church.

The Half-Moon Bluff Baptist Church in the Mile Branch Settlement is a replica of the original church since nothing remains of the original. This structure was built with the aid and support of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, the southeast Louisiana Baptist District, The Washington Parish Baptist Association and many individual donors of financial help and volunteer labor.

This Church is of outstanding historical significance to our Parish and while it is a Baptist Church, under the rules and regulations of Mile Branch Settlement, all displays activities and programs conducted in this building during the Fair must remain interdenominational and visitors of all faiths are welcome by cordial invitation of the Baptist Association and Mile Branch Settlement.

The Bankston Store was built in the late 1890's by Claudia Bankston, a brother of Leon V. Bankston, on the Holmesville Road about 10 miles Northeast of Franklinton where it was first operated as a Saddle and Harness Repair Shop by Mr. Will Wilkes, a brother of Mrs. Claudia Bankston. He also raised and sold chickens and eggs at the shop.

Several years later, after Mr. Wilkes gave up his Repair Shop it was operated by Mr. Claudia Bankston as a Woodwork and Repair Shop.

After the death of Claudia Bankston, this building came into the possession of his brother, Mr. Leon V. Bankston, and has been donated by the heirs of Leon V. Bankston to the Mile Branch Settlement and will serve the Settlement as their Country Store.

The Warnerton Post Office, which is found in the General Store, probably dates back to about 1900 when the K & E Railroad began its run through Warnerton.

Mr. Isaiah Pigott served as its first Postmaster, followed by Mr. John Warner. At his death his wife, Mrs. Stella Bickham Warner, was appointed as the first Postmistress and served until she moved away. At that time Mrs. Mae Ella Brumfield Warner (Mrs. J.J. Warner, Sr.) was appointed Postmistress and served in this capacity until the Warnerton Post Office was discontinued on August 31, 1954.

The Warnerton Post Office was donated to the Mile Branch Settlement by Mrs. J.J. Warner, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Warner, Jr.

In addition, the Robert Daniel Magee heirs have donated the Surrey, which belonged to Mr. Magee and which has been fully restored. It is estimated that this Surrey is approximately 85 years old.

There have been donations of several other buildings, all of which will be moved to the Mile Branch Settlement at a later date. Numerous other donations of antique furnishings and farm implements and tools have been made to the Settlement.

Two more log structures have been moved into Mile Branch Settlement this year.

The Burrel Jones Log House, a one room structure built shortly after 1885 being approximately 19 by 20 feet. It had a fire place with a mud chimney at one end and three doors to the outside, with porches across the front and back, a split shingle roof and is supported by heart pine sills, resting on huge split wood blocks. It was built by a Mr. Thomas, possibly Mr. James Thomas a neighbor of Burrel Jones.

Burrel Jones was the son of William H. Jones and Charlotte Morris, who are buried in a cemetery on Louisiana Highway 60, between Enon and Plainview, Louisiana. He had the following brothers and sisters as indicated by the 1860 Census. They were George T. Jones, William Ira Jones, Thomas Jones, Starling Jones, John K. (Jack) Jones, Sarah Ann Jones, Clemintine Jones, and Francis Adrienne Jones.

After the 1860 Census three more children were born, being Wettenhall Jones, who married twice, first to Martha E. Mizell and second to Mandy Cothorn; Mary Ann Jones, who married Eugene Talley, and Emily Jones, who married Hast Ezell.

William H. Jones appears to have been the son of George W. Jones who was living in the area as early as 1820.

Charlotte Morris Jones, mother of Burrel Jones, was the daughter of Wettenhall Warner Morris and Sara Richardson and was related to most of the original settlers in this area.

Burrel Jones (1859-1949) was married twice, first to Estelle Talley (1862-1901) and this house was built about the time they married, and of this union the following children were born. Doretha Jones, who married Roy Talley, Adrienne Jones, who married Ben Williams, Lanese Jones, who married Gussie Green, James Fletcher (Jimmy) Jones, who married Klea Magee and Bevie Jones, who married Tasso Pierce.

After the death of his first wife, Burrel Jones married Adeline Loyd (1880-1924) and of this union the following children were born: Nona Jones, unmarried, Elvie Jones, who married Marrion Jenkins, Delta Mae Jones, who married Cyril Wood, Revis Jones, who married Bevie Holliday, and Annie Jones, who married Donal Neal.

Later the log house and its site became property of his son, Lanese Jones, who married Gussie Green, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Green of this community. They had three children, John Paul, who died at the age of 9 months; Freeda, who married Louis Kaylor and still lives near the log cabin site. They have one daughter, Katherine Kaylor, and Earl Jones, who married Jimmie Clyburn and lives in Crossett, Arkansas, and who has two children, Sherry Jones, who married Charles Gibson and Kimbrough Clyburn (K.C.) Jones.

This very generous donation by Mrs. Freeda Jones Kaylor and her brother, Earl Jones, grandchildren of the original owners, Burrel Jones and his wife, Estelle Talley Jones, is deeply appreciated. It is through donations of these rare old buildings that we are able to develop a truly interesting historical village that will be a living example of the past in Washington Parish for future generations.

J. Alton Richardson Building was the second building added to Mile Branch Settlement this year has been constructed of logs from a log building donated by Mr. J. Alton Richardson and his family, and comes from their place at Sunny Hill, Louisiana. The building was dismantled and moved to the Settlement. It was located near the old Richardson home which is still standing and was used over the years for miscellaneous storage and at times as a work shop or tool shed.

The exact age of this log building is not known but is believed to have been built circa 1879.

Mr. Richardson was born in the old Richardson home. He married Susan Yates (1900-1961), daughter of John M. (Jack) Yates and Sara Blocker. They had two children, Boone Richardson, and Paula Sue Richardson.

The Mile Branch Settlement Committee deeply appreciates the donation of this building by Mr. Richardson and his family.

Mrs. Collins (Tessie Stafford) Pope has donated the McCaully Stafford Syrup Mill and large iron Syrup Kettle to the Mile Branch Settlement.

The kettle is about 100 years old and is typical of the kettles used in syrup making prior to the use of the rectangular tin pans. It is about 4 feet in diameter and about 2 feet deep and weighs about 250 lbs.

The Kettle, now at Mile Branch Settlement is the last of the three kettles owned by the Stafford family and is one of the two kettles originally owned by Whit M. Erwin. The Mill was purchased by McCaully Stafford to replace the Erwin Mill as mentioned above.

We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Collins (Tessie Stafford) Pope for the donation of these much needed and useful items, to Mile Branch Settlement.

Only one building was added to Mile Branch Settlement in 1980.

The Bankston Blacksmith Shop which was built in the early 1890's by Mr. Claudia Bankston who lived on the Old Holmesville Road about 10 miles northwest of Franklinton, Louisiana.

This building is typical of Farm Blacksmith Shops of that period and was used by Mr. Bankston to repair many things from guns to plows, wagons or buggies, or shoes for horses. He not only made his repairs but did repairs for his friends and neighbors.

Some of the original furnishings and tools among which are the bellows and forge and anvil block, and old benches, are on display in the Bankston Blacksmith Shop.

After the death of Mr. Claudia Bankston the property came into the possession of his brother, Mr. Leon V. Bankston and this Blacksmith Shop has been donated to Mile Branch Settlement by the heirs of Leon V. Bankston.

Also on display in the Blacksmith Shop are the original grinding stone and anvil and other small tools, which were donated by the heirs of Mrs. Kate Bankston Burch, sister of Mr. Claudia Bankston.

This was a very busy year for the Mile Branch Settlement Committee. While no new buildings were added to the settlement, numerous repairs and improvements were made to the existing structures and to the grounds. Special emphasis was placed on the acquisition of much needed furnishings and accessories for the various buildings.

Through the sale of the Prior to 1825 Ownership Maps of Washington Parish, the note stationery and prints of the buildings in the settlement by local artist, Bob Ann Breland and ticket sales for our Christmas at Mile Branch Settlement we were able to raise much needed funds.

Christmas at Mile Branch Settlement, our first Christmas celebration, was an exciting, nostalgic affair that delighted young and old alike. It was a lovely heartwarming experience made even more so by the exceptional cooperation and hard work by the many, many friends who joined in to help make this affair a huge success.

Guests were heartily welcomed at each building. The olde tyme decorations of fresh greenery and berries, as were the activities in each of the buildings, were reminiscence of the pioneer days in Washington Parish. The glow of the kerosene lamps and candles, the cheery warmth of the fireplaces, the Christmas carols and music, the fragrant aroma of the refreshments, certainly created a Christmas that will long be remembered by our many guests and is an event that we hope to repeat annually.

The first part of 1982 was also devoted to maintenance, repairs, the acquisition of furnishings and several special tour groups. We also opened the Settlement to the public in June in conjunction with the Dairy Festival.

In July Thomas Hamilton Pigott and his family donated another log house to the settlement. In addition they donated several items of the original furnishings of this cabin and the huge counter balance post with the original wooden pole that fastened to the counter balance post and to the water bucket used to raise and lower the bucket into the old box dug well, which furnished the water supply for this home.

This very generous donation was made in loving memory of Mr. Pigott's parents and grandparents as a memorial in appreciation of their years of hard work and devotion to their families.

This house is designated as the "Pigott Cabin". It is a two room structure of virgin pine logs hand hewn on two sides and put together with pegs and square nails. The 33 foot "lighter" pine sills rest on large sandstones and wooden blocks or pillars, including the front and back porches, this building measures 38x40. It also has the original frames of the two clay chimneys and many other original and somewhat unusual features.

The Pigott Cabin was originally located on the Old River Road in the Pearl River Swamp about five ½ miles north of Bogalusa, La. and about 1 mile East of the Old Hwy. 21, not too far from the area known as Pigott's Crossing.

Nathaniel Pigott (married Mary Ann Pounds) was the first of the Pigott Clan to settle in the area now identified as Washington Parish and being the same area where this cabin was situated.

His son Nathaniel Washington Pigott was born March 17, 1825, died 1906. He married Permella Thigpen March 22, 1849, daughter of Travis and Jane Rester Thigpen. The Thigpens gave their daughter a tract of land and it was on this land that Nathaniel Washington Pigott and his wife, Permella built this cabin circa 1865-68.

They had nine children and all but the oldest two were born in this cabin.

This cabin was further occupied by other members of the Nathaniel Pigott family until about 1923-24.

William Thomas Pigott and Betty Rose Pigott Hunt, joining with their father, Thomas Hamilton Pigott, have made this very generous and welcome donation to our historical Mile Branch Settlement.

In 1983 we added another cabin to the Mile Branch Settlement, which will be designated as the Johnson Cabin. This cabin was built by Kinza Johnson (1801-1879) in the mid 1800's and donated to the Settlement in 1981 by Mrs. Wanda Jones Watson, wife of the late George Watson, Jr. and their two sons, Robert W. and John Michael Watson in memory of Mrs. Watson's father the late Mr. Van Jones.

This cabin was located on their property south of Enon, La. and with the help of W.A. Hargrove and students at Franklinton High School under the Building Our American Community program was dismantled and moved into the Mile Branch Settlement where it was reconstructed with the help of Mr. Hargrove and the Vo-Ag Students of Franklinton High and others, in time for the 70th Washington Parish Fair.

In 1826 Kinza Johnson and his wife, Mary Jane Richardson Johnson (1809-1854), who was the daughter of Benjamin Richardson, moved from their home on the Benjamin Richardson Headright east of Enon, La. to Rankin County, Miss. locating about halfway between Holmesville and McComb.

After the death of his wife Mary Jane, Dec. 31, 1854, Kinza Johnson returned to Washington Parish purchasing property situated where the present community of Enon is located. However, shortly thereafter he sold this property to George Knight and bought property from James Mizell located approximately two miles south of the Enon Community and it was on this property that this cabin was built apparently in the mid 1800's.

Kinza Johnson died in 1879.

About 1882 this cabin with the exception of the rear portion was dismantled and moved to a site near the present home of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Casanova. It was later dismantled and moved again, this time west of the Bogue Chitto River Road to a location behind what is now the home of Mrs. Wanda Jones Watson, wife of the late George Watson, Jr., where it remained and where it was used for many years by various families as a home.

The Jones acquired the property sometime later and after the death of her father Mr. Van Jones, the property was inherited by Mrs. Wanda Jones Watson and she and her late husband were the last to occupy this cabin as a home and it later was used as a barn. The names of some of the families who lived in this cabin over the years are Johnson, Jones, Knight, Lee, Hunt, Varnado and Watson.

We are deeply indebted to the Watson Family for this generous gift. Their gift is another example of the help and cooperation that is enabling the Mile Branch Committee to reconstruct and preserve our past for the future.

In 1980 Mr. and Mrs. Leon Knight donated the Grist Mill to the Mile Branch Settlement where it was placed next to the Branch Corn Crib. It was one of three previously used by Murphy Bateman Bldg. Supply and was ordered from Meadows Mill Co., Murfreesboro, Tenn. in the early 1940's.

In 1983 during the celebration of the 70th Anniversary of the Washington Parish Fair we were able to complete the necessary repairs and have it in operation, grinding corn into fresh corn meal, an activity which attracted much attention and the demand for the fresh ground meal was often greater than our supply. Seeing exactly how corn meal is made was a very unique experience for many of the onlookers.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Knight for this very interesting piece of equipment.

On November 18, 1883 a small log kitchen believed to have been built in the mid-1800's was moved into the Mile Branch Settlement and placed directly behind the Burrel Jones Cabin.

This tiny kitchen believed to have been built by Morgan Adams nestled between several tall pine trees came to us complete, including all the furnishings, even the old chicken coup fastened to the outside of the house up off the ground to keep the "varmints" from catching the chickens. (Such coups were used to fatten up a fowl or two before k-ing it.)

This building and all its furnishings were donated to the Mile Branch Settlement by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers III of the Ben's Ford Community near Bogalusa, La. and will serve as the kitchen to the Jones Cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers purchased property in the Ben's Ford Community, which is commonly known as the General Rester property. The kitchen comes from this property, and it is believed that Morgan Adams, who owned the property prior to Rester, probably built the kitchen.

Due to the association of this property, and consequently this building, to many pioneer families of the Ben's Ford Community, and at the request of the Rogers, this kitchen will be known at Mile Branch Settlement as the Ben's Ford Kitchen.

By all means, do not fail to visit this delightful spot during the Fair. This addition to the Mile Branch Settlement is indeed a very generous donation on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers for which we are very grateful.

1984 has been primarily devoted to maintenance, repairs, the acquisition of other structures and several special tour groups with the main physical project consisting of re-roofing the Pigott Cabin with the split shingles such as those used on this cabin when it was originally constructed.

There was also a great deal of time devoted to our plans for the 1984 Washington Parish Fair and Pioneer Christmas Celebration, and to future plans for the Settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt A. Fleming, Jr. donated an old log barn in memory of Mr. Fleming's father, Dr. Wyatt A. Fleming. It will be known as the Fleming Barn.

This building is approximately thirty feet square and constructed of cypress logs. It was located on the property when it was purchased by the Flemings in 1947 from the heirs of Cyrus Plummer, who had purchased the property from Daniel Sheridan in 1910. Sheridan bought it in 1904 from Dr. Chauncey Z. Williams. Dr. Williams acquired the property from Abner C. Williams in 1902, who had acquired the property by a Homestead Certificate at an undetermined date. (Pages containing this information are missing from the Homestead Application Book in the Parish Records.)

Mr. Fleming feels that the Barn was constructed between 1870 and 1890 and while we have not been able to positively ascertain who built the barn or when it was built, it is obvious from its construction that

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogical Dept.
Magee Family

it was done by someone with much more than average skill, and we do know that the barn was already located on the property when Cyrus Plummer bought it.

Mr. James Plummer of Covington, a son of Cyrus Plummer recalled his father telling him about living in the barn while he constructed a house on the property and both Plummer and Fleming have been told that one of the Williamses built the barn.

The Fleming Barn is the fourteenth building to be moved into the Settlement and the Mile Branch Settlement Committee is very grateful to the Flemings for the donation of this much needed addition and for their assistance in helping us preserve the history of the early years of Washington Parish.

1986 has been primarily devoted to maintenance and repairs with the main physical project consisting of spraying all the buildings for termites and post powder beetles. A brick chimney was added to the Knight Cabin and fire extinguishers were placed in each building.

We also conducted special tours for several groups this year, several with out of state members.

1987

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morgan donated a log corn crib several years ago. We are very pleased that we were able to move it into the settlement this year. This is the fifteenth building to be located in the Mile Branch Settlement.

It is believed that James Oliver "Barlow" Varnado probably built the crib in the early 1900's. This is a 12 ft. x 14 ft. structure constructed out of "heart" pine logs and was located in the Stoney Point Community of Washington Parish.

The Morgans purchased the property on which the crib was located from Fred Varnado, a son of James Oliver "Barlow" Varnado. They have donated this log corn crib in memory of Mr. Fred Varnado and it will be known as the Varnado Corn Crib.

In addition to the Varnado Corn Crib we have made many changes at the Settlement. Much of the area in back of the settlement, including the area where the "dump" was located has been cleared of underbrush, dead trees and other debris, giving us more space and creating a park like area of natural beauty.

A portion of this area immediately behind the Fleming Barn has been filled in with dirt and the Sugar Cane Syrup Mill has been re-located in this area. A new and larger shed and furnace has replaced the old one.

The area where the syrup mill was located has also been filled in raising the ground level here, hopefully, above flood level and giving the Settlement much needed additional space. Grass has been planted in all of these new areas.

Mrs. Ozzie Warner, also has new and more convenient facilities for making her lye soap and lye hominy, and room for her chickens and farm animals. She too, has been relocated.

Flower beds were prepared for most of the buildings in the settlement and red crepe myrtle trees and azaleas were planted just inside the front fence with a row of cotton and white periwinkles in front of them. Westeria, dogwood trees and pyracantha have also been set out. Morning glories and gourd vines are to be found in several places along with a few tobacco plants.

Each year we schedule one fund raising event for our renovation program. Our 1988 Fund Raiser was an Olde Tyme Barbecue in the Settlement.

The sixteenth building was added to our pioneer village this year. This log smokehouse was donated by Mrs. Elise Penton Fricke and her nieces, Mrs. Rosetta Thomas Byrd and Mrs. Raylene Thomas Perry.

The smokehouse was located in the Bonner Creek Community of Washington Parish south of Franklinton and was built by William C. Penton, Mrs. Fricke's father, circa to 1924.

William C. Penton married Rosalene Fortenberry of Silver Springs, Mississippi and they were the parents of two daughters. Nettie Penton Thomas, now deceased, was the wife of Ray Thomas and Elise Penton Fricke, wife of the late Andrew Fricke. The Thomas's were the parents of two daughters, Rosetta wife of Jerry Byrd and Raylene wife of Ray Perry.

Mrs. Fricke, Mrs. Byrd and Mrs. Perry donate this log smokehouse in memory of William C. Penton, their father and grandfather respectively, and it will be designated as the Penton Smokehouse.

Many other things were accomplished. Many of the old farm implements in the Fleming Barn were cleaned and greased.

Thanks to the efforts of Paul Holmes, a new member of the Mile Branch Settlement Committee, and our landscaping chairman, all of the new filled in areas of last year and most of the bare areas in the settlement are now green with grass. Many of the flower beds were maintained all summer long. Various plants and vines were added, several dead trees were cut out and with the help of the WCI Inmates and J.D. Warner, the Settlement has retained a pleasing appearance all summer.

The Fair Association, again, with the help of the WCI Inmates, constructed a foot bridge across the Mile Branch into the rear of the Settlement with the expectation that it would relieve some of the foot traffic on the main bridge during the Fair. This bridge will only be opened to the public during the Fair and will be locked at all other times.

The seventeenth building was added to our Mile Branch Settlement in September.

John K. and Bonnie Waskom of the Stoney Point Community donated an old "outhouse" located on their property believed to have been built in 1910 by Johnny Edgar "Buddy" Crowe. It is constructed out of hand sawed heart pine and originally had a split shingle roof. There is one door located slightly to the left. It has two holes and is rather unique in that occupants would be positioned back to back rather than side by side.

Crowe was married twice, first to Martha "Mattie" Bullock. Their children were Eva Crowe White of Baton Rouge, who married Johnny White now deceased; Marie Crowe Hennessey also of Baton Rouge, who married Elvert Hennessey who is deceased; David Crowe now deceased, who married Irene Parham; and T. J. Crowe a deceased child.

Mr. Crowe and his second wife, Kate Hogan, had no children.

The property where the outhouse was located was homesteaded in 1882 by John Y. Mapes and the chain of title passes through S. D. Bullock, J. O. Varnado and Leon Sharp. Mr. Crowe purchased the property in 1909 from Mr. Sharp.

In visiting the Settlement you will find the outhouse placed immediately behind a section of the Emerson Kemp Split rail fence in the rear of the Settlement. It will be designated as the Buddy Crowe Outhouse.

For the first time we were able to have a native American Indian exhibit at the Settlement. It was a huge success.

We also has Mr. Tom Carver, widely known for making beautiful Choctaw Indian baskets and his guest on Saturday of the Fair demonstrating the art of making arrowheads.

Our first Olde Tyme Barbecue was such a success that we decided to make it an annual affair and with your support we will be able to continue with our restoration plans.

A very popular project for the Mile Branch Settlement Committee was the publishing of the Washington Parish Free Fair Cookbook. It contains many Washington Parish favorite recipes and other interesting data. There are also recipes for various food items cooked at the Settlement during the fair and old time home remedies.

For the first time in our fourteen year history we will offer for sale the first in a series of collector signed and dated Christmas ornaments. The first ornament will be of the George and Martha Knight Log Cabin, the first building to be placed in the Settlement. These ornaments are designed by our own local Washington Parish Artist, Sara Bateman Nelson. They will be limited to 1000 in number, and will go on sale during the Fair.

As usual there were numerous small chores to be handled throughout the year. The Old Mt. Hermon School had to be reroofed and we began the process of spraying each building with a preservative.

The grist mill donated by Walter Stafford, husband of the late Neva Fricke, in 1989 in honor of and in memory of the Fricke family was moved into the Settlement and placed under a lean-to structure attached to the Varnado Corn Crib.

This grist mill was located about 7 miles south of Franklinton on the original Fricke homesite south of their house in an enclosed shelter. It was operated by members of the Fricke family throughout the late 1920's-30's, grinding cornmeal, corn chop and grits for the public.

Sometime in 1883 Andrew Fricke Sr., husband of Leonide Lemaigan Fricke, residents of New Orleans, was advised to move to the country for reasons of health. Therefore, he and his son Andrew Fricke Jr., who was about 18 years old, traveled to Washington Parish where they selected property located about seven miles south of Franklinton and established a country home so that Andrew Fricke Sr. could spend the majority of his time in the country.

Andrew Jr. soon met and married Martha Ellen Morgan on August 13, 1887. Of this union thirteen children were born.

The Fricke family were enterprising people. In addition to farming and raising cattle they operated at various times a cotton gin, a lumber mill, a general merchandise store, and a sugar mill. They also operated the U.S. Post Office and the community in which they lived was named Fricke, La.

We deeply appreciate the donation of this grist mill to our historical Settlement by Mr. Stafford. It will be designated as the Fricke Grist Mill in honor of and in memory of the Fricke family.

Due to advanced deterioration of lower logs and the roof of the Ben's Ford Kitchen some of the logs were replaced and it was re-roofed with split shingles by Roy Penton and his crew.

The roof of the Bankston Country Store was repaired. Log shelves for fireplace wood were added to some of the cabins.

Our visitors enjoyed the native American Indian Camp for its second year and Mr. Tom Carver, maker of beautiful Choctaw Indian baskets, was a nice attraction for our visitors.

Our annual Olde Tyme Barbecue was a great success and with your support we will be able to continue our restoration plans.

The Washington Parish Free Fair Cookbook sponsored by the Mile Branch Settlement was a great success. We have ordered more of these cookbooks by popular demand so be sure to pick up your issue.

The Collector Christmas Tree Ornament Project was an outstanding success and the ornament to be presented this year will be of the Sylvest-Magee Cabin. As you know these ornaments are dated, numbered and signed and are limited in number to one thousand. They are designed and each is handpainted by our own well-known local Washington Parish artist, Sara Bateman Nelson.

We were visited by several tour groups this year among which were 35 children from the New Orleans Special Creative Learning School and representatives from the Louisiana Tourist Commission and media writers traveling with them.

In 1991, The "Grandpa" House became a part of the Mile Branch Settlement.

The Grandpa House has been moved into the historical pioneer village, the Mile Branch Settlement, in the Washington Parish Fairgrounds at Franklinton, Louisiana. The first grandpa being Thomas Iverson (T.I.) King (11-28-1809—12-6-1858) one of the early settlers of Washington Parish.

The very generous gift of this log house and an old log barn in April, 1991, by Mrs. Bessie Warren King, wife of the late J. S. King, Jr. and their children Mrs. Dorothy King Tickler, wife of Richard B. Tickler, a resident of Panama City, Florida, and William Roy King, husband of Janis Marion Talley King, a resident of Bogalusa, Louisiana, is an important addition to the Mile Branch Settlement.

Mrs. Tickler and Mr. Roy King are the great, great grandchildren of T. I. King and they, along with their mother, have donated this house and the barn in memory of J. S. King, Jr. (10-12-1908—9-5-1990), their father and the late husband of Mrs. King.

The old log barn will be moved into the settlement at a future date.

This log house and log barn have been in the King family since 1830.

T. I. King was born in Georgia and it is believed he came to Washington Parish via Amite County, Mississippi, about 1830. Little is known about his family prior to this time.

He married Lucy A. Bickham (11-23-1817—5-4-1877), daughter of Captain Thomas Bickham (1771-1850) and Mary Curry (1788-1850), on December 9, 1831, who already lived in Washington Parish and there are indications that he was acquainted with the Bickhams before moving here.

This 160 year old house was probably built in 1830, prior to his marriage to Lucy Bickham.

The construction of the house indicates that a good deal of planning and forethought went into its design and that perhaps Mr. T. I. King had an above average knowledge of carpentry. He obviously intended that this home be as comfortable as possible and built it to last many years.

Tree length logs were hand cut and hilltop shaped and used for floor joist. The flooring is notched on the bottom at contact points with joist to reduce floor thickness and for obtaining a smooth floor surface. The front and back porches are tied to the room structure with full length logs that traverse the full length of the house. The ceiling joist were hand hewn down from round logs to five inch by five inch square beams used over the exposed ceilings of the porches.

In one of the rooms, located on the mantelpiece, are the initials T.I.K. carved from wood strips.

The attic or areas above the ceilings of both rooms and the dog trot were floored and used as sleeping lofts with access to the loft from each room and the dog trot. Large native sandstone rocks were used to raise the sills off the ground and for leveling.

The house originally had hand split shingles on the roof and there was a fireplace in each of the two rooms.

The kitchen was separate from the house with a raised walkway between the two buildings.

Thomas Iverson (T. I.) King and his wife, Lucy A. Bickham King, had the following ten children:

Francis I. King (11-24-1833—11-9-1861)

Married to Zachariah Magee (1829—1894)

Oliver Wesby King (9-17-1857—)

No other information available.

Thomas Iverson King died on December 6, 1858 at the age of 49. His wife, Lucy, lived on in the house for several years and later married Theophilus Dillon on November 8, 1866 and they and the two younger children of Lucy, John Benjamin T. King and Oliver Wesby King moved to Mississippi.

Later, John Benjamin King (12-17-1853—11-12-1934), ninth child of Thomas Iverson King and Lucy Bickham King, married Emma Richardson (1-17-1858—1-8-1930) on October 15, 1874. Benjamin lived in this house until about 1932. Emma, his wife, died in 1930. His health was very bad and he went to live with his son, James S. (Jim) King, Sr. near Clifton, Louisiana until his death in 1934 at the age of 61.

It was during the occupancy of John Benjamin (Benny) King and his wife, Emma Richardson King, that beaded ceiling and siding was installed on the interior walls and the dog trot area was enclosed. Six inch drop siding covered the exterior walls and the split shingled roof was replaced with tin sheeting and brick chimneys replaced the clay ones. One side of the back porch was enclosed and became the kitchen. The opposite end of the back porch was also enclosed and became a bedroom, and glass windows were installed throughout the house.

This house has never been connected to electricity or had running water. There were two dug water wells, one near the kitchen and the other near the barn for their water supply. Also Hayes Creek flowed through the property.

John Benjamin (Benny) King and Emma Richardson King had the following children:

James Samuel King (4-29-1877—5-8-1945)

Married to Ola Magee (11-14-1882—8-16-1968)

Ada Olevia King (8-11-1875—3-20-1947)

Married to Rankin Smith (7-9-1869—7-7-1948)

Dollie King (1-26-1878— , 1940)

Married twice; first to Fred Magee (1845-1897); secondly to Ellie Brumfield.

Emma Rebecca King (12-2-1882—1-8-1930)

Married to Richard Wilson (No dates available).

After the death of John Benjamin (Benny) King, the property then transferred to James Samuel (Jim) King, Sr., in 1934, and the house was used as a tenant house for several years.

James Samuel (Jim) King, Sr., did live in this house throughout his childhood years. He did not live here during his adult years.

James Samuel (Jim) King, Sr. married Ola Magee on December 24, 1896 and they had the following children:

William Benjamin King (12-10-1897—12-29-1959)

Married Elise Branch (3-17-1899—7-24-1984)

Cullie Huey King (7-22-1904—4-10-1960)

Married Nellie Bateman (5-27-1901—Living)

Ollie Udine King (9-11-1899—9-30-1957)

Married Maurice Magee (12-11-1895—10-21-1964)

James Samuel (J.S.) King, Jr. (10-12-1908—9-5-1990)

Married Bessie Warren (10-5-1907—Living)

Benjamin Claude King (1-9-1923—10-11-1980)

Married Myrtle Haley (2-23-1919—12-11-1979)

There were also two infants who died at birth.

After the death of J. S. (Jim) King, Sr. the property was transferred to James Samuel (J. S.) King, Jr. in April, 1946 and the house has not been occupied since that time.

James Samuel (J. S.) King, Jr. married Bessie Warren on April 18, 1925 and they have the following children:

Dorothy King Tickler

Married Richard B. Tickler

William Roy King

Married Janis Marion Talley

This house was located in Washington Parish northeast of Clifton, Louisiana, community and often referred to as the Benny King Place. However, it has passed from generation to generation in the King family with each succeeding owner accepting the responsibility of the custodial care and maintenance of this house as well as the ownership of the property. Among the members of the King family it was known as "The Grandpa House".

This building is the eighteenth building to be added to the Mile Branch Settlement since its beginning in 1975. And we are looking forward to the day that we will be able to move the old log barn into the settlement also.

This is a prestigious addition to our settlement and with the many King's family descendants and related families of Magee, Richardson, Smith, Brumfield, Warren, Wilson, Dillon, Branch, Bateman, Haley, and Bickham, it should be of special interest to a great many of our visitors.

The Fair Association and the Mile Branch Committee deeply appreciate the donation of "The Grandpa House" and barn to our historical pioneer village by Mrs. Bessie Warren King, Mrs. Dorothy King Tickler and Mr. William Roy King. It will be designated as the Grandpa House, built by Thomas Iverson King and donated in memory of J. S. King, Jr. by his wife and children.

Our project of collector Christmas Tree Ornaments was once again very successful. The old Mt. Hermon School is the design of our 1991 ornament and should be of great interest to our collectors. Many Washington Parish residents attended this school and many of their descendants still live here. Each ornament is hand painted, signed, dated and numbered by their designer, our own Washington Parish artist, Sara Bateman Nelson. These ornaments are limited in number to 1000.

We hosted several tour groups this year among which were two large classes from Mandeville Middle School.

A group of professional and businessmen from the Philippine Islands taking part in the Rotary Club sponsored Group Study Exchange Program visited with us several hours and seemed to enjoy our "history lesson" about the early days of Washington Parish.

We were also happy to greet a 4-H Exchange Group of students from Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Robin Hood Photography of Franklin, Tennessee used the Pigott Cabin and Mile Branch as a backdrop for a commercial series in connection with a promotion of Purina Pro Glo Dog Food.

Frank Davis of WWL-TV in New Orleans also used our historical settlement for a segment of his Back Roads of Louisiana series which aired on WWL-TV.

Whenever possible, we conduct special tours by appointment.

Since the beginning of Mile Branch Settlement we have been the recipients of numerous donations of not only buildings, but of household furnishings and accessories; farm implements, equipment, machinery, and small tools. Items for the store, church and the school and many other things suitable for recreating our past at Mile Branch Settlement, all of which we sincerely appreciated.

Each year we have tried to include a list of these donations and gifts as they occur. We hope that we have not overlooked a single gift. If you have made a donation and it has not been listed in one of our past brochure issues, please call it to our attention.

DONATIONS, OCTOBER 1990—OCTOBER 1991

The following donations were received between the above dates and we do indeed appreciate and thank these donors for their generosity and their aid in helping us to furnish the Mile Branch Settlement and to preserve our past.

DONATION: By two classes of Mandeville Middle School—$60

DONATION: By Robin Hood Photography, Franklin, Tennessee—$150

In visiting the buildings and grounds in Mile Branch Settlement you will see many interesting and authentic objects in the furnishings of the houses and out buildings, and among the farm equipment, tools, etc. Many of these have been donated to Mile Branch Settlement and some are loaned by interested citizens in this area. Combined with the recreation of many household and farm chores typical of the early days in Washington Parish, and with the assistance of many crafts people, make Mile Branch Settlement one of the most interesting and exciting exhibits in the state and southeastern part of the United States.

Mile Branch Settlement has been designated as a Historical Site by the State of Louisiana and is on both the Historical Register and the Louisiana Tourist Roster. Two of the buildings, the Knight Cabin and the Sylvest Building are listed on the National Historical Register.

It is hoped that we will be able to complete the plans and restorations of the entire settlement within the next few years and the committee wishes to express their deep and sincere appreciation for all the wonderful help, support and interest of the many persons involved in this project, including the donations of the various buildings, out-buildings, furnishings and for the loan of the hundreds of items on display during the Fair. We also wish to thank the many crafts people and all of those who are working so hard to make Mile Branch Settlement come "alive" for you during your visit to the Washington Parish Fair.

SPECIAL THANKS

TO: All the volunteers and visitors who turn out year after year during our Fair to make our historical village the interesting, exciting place it is. Without them we could not function.

TO: The many Craft Persons and Musicians, the Persons responsible for our Special Programs and the Persons who perform our Special Chores, many of whom travel quite some distance at their own expense, and work long hours in preparation and performing in order that Mile Branch Settlement may offer our visitors quality entertainment and interesting activities.

TO: J. D. Warner for donating his time and the cotton seed so that we could have cotton in the Mile Branch Settlement again this year.

Pascagoula Public Library

TO: The JLA Corps and the WCI Inmates who did a wonderful job in helping keep our Settlement raked and mowed, cleaned up and cleared, and for the numerous repairs and other chores they performed this year in the maintenance and preservation of the Mile Branch Settlement. Their help is indispensable.

TO: The numerous persons who have helped out tremendously in many different ways, but who ask to remain anonymous.

Each year we UPDATE and present this brochure to our guests containing pertinent and current information about the buildings, their history, furnishings, activities, farm equipment and current donations etc. We sincerely hope that you will take the time to read this information and keep this brochure, or if not, pass it on to some interested person or student.

Daniel & Sally - I thought perhaps the license was from Marion Co and maybe they married in Pike Co. It appears they did not marry day license issued because grandson Felix said they married in August. Oh well, guess that's close enough.

Gabriel and Ann Allen - I don't have parents for either of them. Do you have parents of Gabriel Allen? Your list of children is correct. George married Miss SUG (ch: James, Barnabas, John, Elizabeth). Felix married Miss WILLIAMS (ch: son Christeen, 2 daughters). Mary married Cornelious McGRAW (ch: Anny, Elizabeth). Barnabas married (1)Elizabeth MAGEE (dau of Jacob), (2) Sally BARKSDALE. Garret McKinney married Molsey GATLIN (ch: Sophie, Elizabeth, Albert Gallatin, Emmet Merryman, others). Jean Strickland:

Thank you so much for sending the Magee family information from the John Pigott book.

As reference for anyone else: There is proof that the John Magee known as "Jackey" was a son of Jacob Magee. In the bounty land application of Daniel Magee for his service in the War of 1812, there is a letter from Frank M. Quin, dated 12 May 1860, Holmesville MS. The following is quoted from the letter.

Daniel Magee is a resident of Texas, but for some time has been in Pike County on this Mississippi State settling his affairs from which place he removed from financial difficulties. He has two living brothers here who have obtained warrants and who has stated his case to me. Their names I hand you Henry Magee and Jacky Magee one of the affiants. He having made me his agent, you will please forward the warrant or any information respecting it to this address.

The information in the book says there has been no proof if Jacob had a son John, or which one. That may be old data, but anyone interested can get the proof from the Nat. Archives.

Thank you,

Barbara Thomas

Dear Mrs. Strickland

Your Who Married Whom, Jones Co., Miss.
has been most helpful.

I believe Almeda K. Welch, daughter of Timothy L. Welch and Mary E. Matthews (p. 170) married Oliver Singleton Reeves; also Benajah Welch married Alsie Dora Ellerbe (in Natchez).

Singleton Reeves (p. 123) is Oliver Singleton Reeves.
His father, Richard Calvin Reeves, was married first to Sarah E. McGee, and second to her sister, Georgiann McGee Holifield - daughters of Seaborn McGee. I have no record of divorce for Sarah and Calvin, but Anne said they were married in 1873 in Jones Co. Both wives filed CSA pension claims, Sarah in Covington Co., Miss, and Anne in Clarke Co., Ala.

Do you know of anyone willing to share information about the Reeves, McGee, Welch, Matthews, and/or Temples families?
Jones Co. is as far back as I've gotten on the Reeves (James and Annie Reeves). I have the Reeves Review by Emma Barrett Reeves, but the Jones Co. Reeves are not in it.

I think I've read all of your books on Perry, Wayne, Jones, and Covington Counties.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Benita Ellerbe

SUBJECT: MAGEE FAMILY

Alice, I checked my Magee files this AM and have some more information for you. Leslie Magee, Jr of 909 Barrett, Mendenhall, MS 39114, tel 601-847-2436 did a good summary of the Magee family history. It goes back to Alpin, King of Scotland and directly to his ancestor, Owend Weathersby Magee (1855-1931). You will want to contact him. He also sent me descendants of Jonathon Magee (1764-1841) and Rebecca James.

In his summary, Phillip (1770-1826) Magee who m Mary Butler is noted as the 15th generation <grin> and was born in Duplin NC. Phillip is shown as son of John MacGehee who m Ann Moore. John is shown as son of William, Jr b 1722 m Elizabeth McCullough. William Jr is son of William. William is son of John MacGregor, etc, etc, etc.

You can secure a microfilm (from Salt Lake) of McGehee Descendants, Vol I & II by Ethel C. Woodall Grider, published by Gateway Press, Inc, Baltimore, 1989 through your local Family History Center of the nearest Mormon stake

Mrs. Janet Ann Cook Kalka of Magee is a descendant of Phillip and Mary Butler Magee, which is your line. Don't have her address but am sure you can locate her. She descends from Barsheba Magee who m Richard Tullos. Think this line is in Vol I of the Magee series.

Apparently the first to immigrate from Scotland was Thomas MackGehee (James Macgregor) d 1724 m Ann Bastropto King William County, VA, Vol 1.

Other researchers in this line include Dora Hubbard Smylie, 2613 Vance Ave, Alexandria, LA.

Mrs. Ethel C. Woodall Grider lives at 714 Third Ave, Winder, GA 30680.

I hope all these generations have been documented. I am not certain. So many times one receives a family line that goes way back with absolutely NO documentation. Just yesterday I received one on my Joseph May line exactly like that that claims to go back to 1564 in England. How disappointing. Hope all this makes sense to you. Your line apparently has been completed way back just hope it has been documented. Let me know if I can help further. Best

Pascagoula City Library
Pascagoula, Ms.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Accompanying this letter, I have included a page of obituaries from my records. Also, my chart on which will find exactly how Margaret Magee fits. She is #27. I can not, for the life of me, establish just who her parents were, but then, do not know of anyone who would know of this Magee--Covington Co. family. No one to contact for further information.

One correction I need to make, is that she is listed erroneously as the wife of a Richard Keown on the 1850 Census of Smith Co., Ms. Her age on that census is listed as 23. There is not (and never was) a Richard Keown. The census taker did not pay attention to what he was told to put down. This caused about two years of a wild goose chase with our Keown research, which is now entirely well documented.

The interesting thing to me is that the husband of Margaret Magee is, of course, Robert Lewis Keown, who's mother was Isabella Weems Keown. These people (families) were both from Abbeville, S.C. Then, in early to middle 1800's--we find branches of both these families settling in Smith Co., Ms. Only two brothers, Samuel and my Robert Lewis settled in Mississippi. The rest of this large family, including parents Robert and Isabella Weems Keown, settled in Missouri. This group never came to Mississippi. Smith County contained both Weems and Keowns in mid 1800's. I have often wondered about this. What was the attraction, back then, of Smith County, Mississippi?

I hope that you will be able to give me the address of some who may have a Bible record that would list my Margaret Magee, or someone who has researched the Covington Co. Magee families.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ms. Boyer:

Thank you for your letter of inquiry concerning the Magee family and the information you sent.

Enclosed find what Magee information we have in our files. I feel sure that your Margaret Magee comes from the Phillip Magee line for this was the line that was in Covington County, MS. I have no definite information on this, but perhaps what I am sending will help you.

You may want to contact Lena Garvin, 18125 Galatina Street, Rowland Heights, CA 91748. She is working this line and has done extensive research on it.

You ask about the reason for the migration to the Smith County area. There was no definite reason, except that it was new land created from the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. All of the counties created around 1835 from this treaty enjoyed a tremendous influx of settlers. Older areas of Mississippi were deserted as the settlers flocked to the newly opened land. This coupled with the influx of people from other states and foreign countries created a large migration pattern.

Thank you for writing and good luck in your research. If we can help further, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Jean Strickland

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to request advice and information on how I may go about finding information on my father. The only information that I have on him is the following.
His name: FRANK UNION MAGEE
His age at the time of my birth: 37 years
His occupation at the time of my birth: Advertising
His place of birth is listed as Mississippi.
As for his age, that was the age he was at the time of my birth. As my mother and my father separated soon after me and my twin sister were born, and my mother refuses to tell ~~either me or anyone else any information about my father, it~~ has really made it hard on me to find him. My sister and I have exhausted what seems like every way of acquiring any information about our father. It is as though we have reached what some call a dead end. We don't have a social security number on him. The above information which I've listed is all the information that we have. Our mother simply refuses to tell us anything about our father. Needless to say, this has really put us at a dead end. As we are doing our family genealogy this leaves a good size blank space in our tree. We cannot list our grandparents on our father's side because of this lack of information. This is the reason for which I am writing to you and your Society and Library. Please, if there is any advice or information which you could give to me concerning this matter it will be greatly appreciated.

I am including a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your reply. Also, if there is any charge for the information please let me know and I will send you the amount.

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

Your letter dated November 28, 1971, has been forwarded to me at my present home address in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. My Father, who was a genealogist, passed away in December of 1963. All of his books and papers pertaining to his work are in my possession. I have not up until now devoted the time necessary to acquaint myself with the mass of information which is available.

From a book concerning my Mother's family which he compiled, I find that William Magee (and sometimes McGee) died in Duplin, North Carolina, prior to July 17, 1771, whose wife Ann Moore was the daughter of Joseph Moore of Halifax and Edgecombe Counties of North Carolina. They were married prior to May 30, 1748.

Their children were Thomas Magee, John, William, James, Phillip, Lewis, Elizabeth and Cecelia and Jacob who married Mary Scott and Willis Magee who married Asha Scott about 1790. Mary Scott was the daughter of Nehemiah and Elizabeth Scott. Asha Scott was the daughter of Joseph Scott, Sampson County, North Carolina. Further information is to the effect that Nehemiah Scott was the son of Joseph Scott, Jr., who died in Sampson County, North Carolina, in 1781. He may be the one who married Elizabeth Joseph Scott, Jr., who died in Franklin County, Mississippi, about 1835 is known to have had at least four sons one of whom was Nehemiah Scott who married Margaret Lee in 1823.

William Magee, the father of Jacob Magee, was probably born in St. John's Parish, King William County, Virginia, about 1712 and must have come to the Province of North Carolina in the 1730-1740 period. As in Saunders Colonial Records of North Carolina, volume 4, page 761, we find on April 6, 1745, he petitioned for 250 acres of land in Edgecomb County. In Halifax County, North Carolina, Deed Book "1", page 42, on August 22, 1733, one John Steward of Edgecombe Precinct bound himself for 100 pounds sterling promise bills to William Magee. He was married by May 30, 1748, as on that date Joseph Moore of Edgecomb County deeded 125 acres to "William Magee, my son-in-law." This is recorded in Halifax County Deed Book "3", page 272. He was evidently an ardent land trader for it appears that he secured grants of land, improved them, then sold them. He evidently died in 1771 as in 1772 ~~we~~ found his estate being administered by his widow and (Moore).

The name Magee seems to have been first spelled as MackGehee then later as McGehee, McGee and finally Magee. My Father once believed that the Magees were direct descendants of Major James MacGregor (Thomas MackGehee). The name change occurred probably during the reign of King James II and was brought about by the affiliation of the MacGregor Clan with the Marquis ~~and~~ Montrose and King Charles the First. He lived in St. John's Parish, King William County, Virginia, with his will being probated on July 27, 1727. He married three or four times, but the names of his wives have not been proved. He had several children among whom was William MackGehee, who was baptised in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, Virginia, October 10, 1689. This William MackGehee was the father of the William MackGehee, who married Ann Moore.

As I stated in the beginning of this letter, a large amount of information is available among the records which I have. I am enclosing copies of the charts of my own family which pertain to the information which I have outlined above. I will be pleased to send you prints of some of the data which is in my files if you believe after reading this that it would be of help to you.

Hopefully one of these days soon, I will be able to devote some time to my Father's papers and reacquaint

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Truly another good man has passed away. Died on the 14th day of February, 1886, Bro. R. L. Keown aged 68 years, 9 months and 11 days. He was a member of the Methodist Church for a long time. Was a devoted member of the Church and a zealous christian. As a man he was honest and upright in all of his dealings. As a husband, father, neighbor and citizen he had no superior. As a Mason he was a Past Master and stood high with the fraternity. Whereas, It has pleased the Grand Master of the Universe to call from the labor of this Lodge to the everlasting refreshment of his Kingdom, our beloved Brother R. L. Keown; therefore—Resolved that we bow in humble submission to the Almighty fiat, and recognize in this dispensation of his Providence that Divine Almighty to which, as Masons we tender unserved allegiance, yet we mourn the absence of our Brother. We are so proud of our Brother, who has shown so bright and were worn with so much honor to himself and credit to the craft. Resolved, That we tender to his afflicted family the light of whose joy has been thus denied forever, the sincere sympathy of this Lodge. Recommending them to the Masons God, whose Mysterious purpose we may not comprehend but whose protecting care and fatherly compassion we cannot doubt.

Resolved—That as a token of respect to our departed Brother, the members of Auburn Lodge, No. 166, wear the usual badge or emblem of mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to spread these Resolutions upon the minute book of this Lodge, and furnish a copy to the family of the deceased; also send a copy to the Raymond GAZETTE for publication.

KEOWN—It is not without sadness of heart that we record the death of one of the purest and best members of our church in Utica circuit.

SISTER MARGARET M. KEOWN was born in Covington county, Miss., February 1, 1828, and died at Learned, Hinds county, Miss., September 20, 1885, aged fifty-seven years, seven months and nineteen days.

Hers was a life of consecration. When but a child, she joined the church, and entered upon the discharge of Christian duty. The Lord honored her efforts to please him, and gave her the witness of the Spirit some time during the year 1848. The same year she was happily married to Bro. Louis Keown, who, with three children, survive her.

Sister Keown was a Methodist of the old type. She rejoiced in the personality of the religion of Christ. Her conversion was clear and soul-satisfying. She perpetuated the evidence of her acceptance by faithful continuance in well-doing. She understood and appreciated the law of activity, and looked to that for personal development in spiritual things. Her life was consistent, exemplary.

As wife, she was self-denying, patient, loving and devoted. This was clearly evinced by her long-continued watching and waiting at the bedside of her sorely afflicted husband, whom she loved with a fondness which knew no abatement.

As mother, she was tender, affectionate, thoughtful and firm.

As Christian, she was meek, humble, aspiring. She was not only interested in her own success in serving the Master, but she was also deeply solicitous about the progress of others.

She loved the Savior, and earnestly desired the success of his kingdom in the world.

She loved to read of the aggressions and triumphs of the church. The NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE edited and strengthened her for more than twenty years. With her the battle is over, the conflict past, and her soul has entered into rest.

May the afflicted husband and sorrowing children be led by the Spirit, remembering that God has said, "Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness."

Pastor.

OCEAN SPRINGS — Coming together in the spirit of a hometown community, members of the Citizens for the Bond Issue are optimistic about their efforts.

About 30 people gathered Wednesday, as they do every Wednesday at 6:30 p.m., for an organizational meeting in the Continuing Excellence Campaign. The group consisted of parents, school administrators and other community members.

"You can really see why Ocean Springs schools have an excellent reputation because the parents and community have not only supported the children in the home, but in the schools as well," Campaign Publicity Volunteer Celeste Maugh said.

Every week the committees gathers in the Ocean Springs Schools Administration office, shares some good-natured ribbing and enthusiasm and discusses campaign strategies to get the $9.95 million bond issue passed on Aug. 30, the date set for the referendum.

If passed, the bond issue will fund an extensive expansion and renovation plan for district schools which would address the district's classroom crowding problem. The plan includes the building of a 1,350-student middle school for grades sixth, seventh and eighth at the inter-
